ADVERTISEMENTS AND INDEX

418

We are the fragments of men's dreams —

Destined to walk the winding street of the hill

We are the makers of memories, our voices thread silver lines in the white light into mists of night's eternity

We are the raw fiber — fresh, eager — challenging the cast of being.

We are the paradox full blown — seekers of silences — giving life to the fast crescendo of each new moment

We are the composite of massed faces — each a self possessed

We are the hunters — we are the mirror — we are forever.

We come from the crossed roads of existence — we run from high to low its gamut

From the quiet sand spits where the piper runs and success is measured in the weight of worn nets:

From the sophisticated, horn-blowing city where life is a laugh, a token, and a tall green bottle:

From the centers of industry, we come, where progress
stifles our breath:

We are from the new pastures of the mind —

From the deep red furrows of the farm

From the capitals and the cities of the world

But most of us live in this land of gray-coated legends — in its small towns, in its heart, where people glide through vaulted rooms on hardwood floors — or sit on the worn bench of the corner store — or sweat in the day's eye — and hold up their shacks with tall white pillars — all working in their way for a warless future — preserving a memory of a proud past.

We are the ever-changing face of this world where dreams are made —

We are the life giving element of the process

We are tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow.

AUTUMN

And like the seasons we are also

We, from summer's fields triumphant

Desert our grass harps, paper plates and beer cans

Climb, we must, the ivied oak and shout our challenge to the winds

Eager we, for instant smiles reflected in converging faces — in imaged eye of college town.

3 1 0 8 13 0

We are the bronzed leaf restless in the sneeze of afternoon

The moments meeting on marble steps — discussions
deep over liverwurst

Art's face gloating from food-stained walls — echoes of summer on gaudy Wurlitzers

Merchant's hand across smooth profits counter — new vestments for the changing self

Cascades of flame, maize yellow — storms of crispness briefly sorted by rakes and black callused hands sent ever dashing by the pouncing race of hound

Nature's lavish battles in the branches

Stalks of corn — bound — skyward pointing

Seed pod shadows on upturned faces — harvests gathered

We the reapers — discard and sort, and cling to the vision of tomorrow next.

This, the defiant time — impatient — compelling

We whisper — laugh — and wail

We clench our fists and swear

And afternoons of Saturday give birth to Kenan's wars on mud scarred turf

Helmets and shields — sweat and tears — wind-wicked skirt and touseled hair

Emotions pour from our hearts and lungs, binoculars and silvered flasks

Victory's song — turning in trees tongues — in flashing neon symbols — walking the world in button-down shirts and squeeking doors, vomiting footsteps, sobs, corn crunching twos when the flick lets out.

Familiar scrawl on envelope blue — tawdry weekends — escape from self's routine — unplanned twists of fate

Shades of dusk — peanut hulls and melted ice — in memoriam.

Fall scamps past on squirrels feet — gorges today's in its fat pouches — rustles in the crisped fruit of spring and retires to the drab

Fall's goblins, with outstretched hands — ever knocking on the door — we are the blue on the sill of night

Hark the sound — fast die the days,

W I N T E R

We are the winter moon — stalking the gutted stands — down lamp-lit avenues to the winking, red-mud face of town — across the slat bridge of decision to the naked hills

Ours is the flushed face — the snow flecked lash

We are the eyes that catch your funny smile in the sea of bobbing others — the ears that strain to hear your step on frozen ground — the distant voice you tell your life to, in day tight parcels

Ours are the names cut deep in friendships tree.

We are the Weejued, hand-knit questions —
unanswered

Mad incongruency of Milton and Poppa "D" — madras or mask?

A wet mosaic of twigs, worms and tattered leaves on the brick walks of the mind

Ours is the grinning face in puddled beer — the twisting shadow on the basement wall — the wispy veils of smoked silences — spasms of UT to hollow peanut's crunch.

We are the hushed chuckle — the convulsive spurt — the silence between thought and word — the chip-toothed shadows on crusted white

Our heart, the harbor of May dreams, like seeds forgotten beneath the snow

Our pulse, clean beat of leather globe on Woollen's court

From the linked arms of moon and dawn we come in twos, whispering, crying in threes and fours around bare trees of night — sipping coffee's black.

We are the throng of frost bitten noses — the unsipped
“bud” — the burnt out filter

We play at life — a full house — wild deuces all — some may win this game of hearts

We are the army of cold knees, spitting fires — torn pages, underscored

Our song — sung through Babled windows — and thick chapped lips of black men

Night slinks through branches ribs

So walks the eye of Dei through the chained songs of concrete and slush pools — while todays and yesterdays are swept in neat piles and journals speak of tomorrows.

SPRING

We are the warm intimacy that is spring — the fond brush of petals on the cheek of dawn — happiness — wax paper wrapped in wicker baskets — the bursting bubble in the stream — the dappled lawn

We are the velvet nose of cow, nibbling young whiskers of the field — the evanescent puff of mist

We stretch our arms with March's madness, fling open the blinding portals of memory — leave night's patterns on our ceilings and hurry past shaded knives in welled stairs of Tuesdays last

We are the wash-and-wear, short-sleeved tribe, with wind strung hair — Thursday's sun dances, and Monday's rain.

We are the morning's sight in the June barked sapling

We, the pastel masquerade, mad-hatted trees — rival to disheveled heads — barefoot bundles — nails'
toe polish

We are the petaled carpet — the sponged earth — the unmasked soul — illogical transparencies — walking the pebbled paths of arboretum magic

Our life, the solid smack of wood on tight bound leather — hot rivet in steel — hammer's pound

Nostalgic sound of tower bells — lingering draughts of old well water

We are the closing of the door.

Our forms reflect in cool Hogans face — windows of cars flashing retreat past tall close buildings and unlatched doors

We are the soft light on the oaken vessels of the soul — the mid-day sun — the stone spire — the young leaf impatient for autumn's slap

We are the final drive through mind's lamped trails — swift coffee rivers — quick wall scrubbed mind - - circle files of course forgotten.

We are time's blue shirt days

We are the song too soon a memory — an instant mix of belching horn and chuckling thumb drum — the uncertain laugh

Our symphony by the sea — played on strings of tamarisk, through beak of gull and sifting footprint — a surging recurrence of yesterdays —
remembered always in laughter's lines and deep creased faces

We are the quick sipped lemonade — insanity's disciples — dreams of peace — threats of war —
the untouched cells of suicide — the mystery in sand crab sketches

We are the packages of tomorrow sucking existence drops from vacuum packs.

We are the oil streaked rain slipping by — unnoticed
— the unknown crops of summer — the cacophony of tires through meditation windows

We walk the wind with unsure feet — avoiding picket voids of emptiness — living life in day packed spans to the ancient creed

We live — we laugh — we love.

LYMAN A. COTTEN, Ph.D., 1941 (Yale), Professor of English, is well-known among the students for his stimulating courses ranging from sophomore literature to modern poetry. He is a member of the Modern Language Association, the National Association of Teachers of English, and the College English Association. He is a past faculty member of the Publication Board. In recognition of Dr. Cotten's excellence in teaching, he was the recipient of a Tanner Award in 1961. At present, Dr. Cotten is working on an edition of a nineteenth century poem.

JOHN M. EHLE, JR., A.M., 1953 (North Carolina), Associate Professor of Radio, Television and Motion Pictures, is the author of American Adventures, a radio series which won numerous prizes, including two awards from the Ohio State Exhibition for Radio and Television, two George Washington Honor Medals from the Freedoms Foundation, and a special citation from the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Dr. Ehle's stories and articles have appeared in national magazines and some of his plays have been produced for national television. He is the author of several novels and biographies. His most recent book is Lion on the Hearth published in 1961.

HAROLD HOTELLING, Ph.D., 1921 (Princeton), Kenan Professor of Statistics, is an international authority in his field and has lectured in numerous foreign universities such as Paris, Brussels, and London. He is a consultant to the Gulf Research and Development Corporation, and the U. S. Navy. He is a Fellow of the Royal Economic Society, and an Honorary Fellow of the Royal Statistical Society. On his last birthday, his fellow statisticians published two volumes in his honor. Dr. Hotelling's special field of study is welfare economics and the incidence and effect of taxation.

SAMUEL B. KNIGHT, Ph.D., 1938 (North Carolina), Professor of Chemistry, is noted among students for his clarity of explanation of the most difficult chemical concepts. He is a member of the American Chemistry Society, and the Eli-sha Mitchell Scientific Society. He has written a number of articles and has prepared and organized a series of educational programs for a college television course in chemistry. Dr. Knight co-authored the text Fundamentals of Physical Chemistry and contributed to the Encyclopedia of Science. In 1959, Dr. Knight received a Tanner Award for excellence in teaching.

DONALD P. COSTELLO, Ph.D., 1931 (Pennsylvania), Kenan Professor of Zoology, has as his special field of research experimental embryology and cytology. He is a Fellow of the Institute Internationale d'Embryologie, a member of the Editorial Board of the journal of Growth, a member of the Executive Committee of the American Society of Zoologists, a Trustee of the Marine Biological Laboratory at Wood-Hole, Massachusetts, and a Consultant to the National Institutes of Health to the Research Grants Division. He is the managing editor of The Biological Bulletin and the author of numerous papers for scientific journals. Dr. Costello has a five year research grant from the National Institutes of Health.

HARRY E. DAVIS, M.A., 1940 (Columbia), Professor of Dramatic Art and Chairman of the Department of Dramatic Art, gets a great deal of practical experience in his field as Director of Unto These Hills, an outdoor drama presented in North Carolina, and as Director of the famous Carolina Playmakers at the University of North Carolina. He is President of the South Eastern Theater Conference and on the Board of Directors of the American Educational Theater Association. Professor Davis is a member of the International Council of the Arts and the State Arts Council.

JOHN G. KUNTSMANN, Ph.D., 1938 (Chicago), Professor of German and Chairman of the Department of Germanic Languages, is a member of the Modern Languages Association, and a member and past President of the Association of Teachers of German in the United States. He is on the editorial board of Modern Philology, and a past research director of the Lutheran Academy for Scholarship. Dr. Kuntsmann is also a member of the Society for the Advancement of Scandinavian Studies. This year Dr. Kuntsmann was the recipient of the Great Cross of Merit of the Federal Republic of Germany at Bonn in recognition of his outstanding contributions in the field of Germanics.

HARVEY E. LEHMAN, Ph.D., 1948 (Stanford), Professor of Zoology, has recently received a grant from the Institute of Muscle Research. He is a member of the Society of Zoology, and was in charge of an experimental embryological course at the Bermuda Biological Station. Dr. Lehman has written numerous articles for professional zoological journals as well as a laboratory manual for use in introductory zoology. Dr. Lehman was the recipient of a Tanner Award for excellence in Teaching in 1961.

DAVID G. BASILE, M.A., 1939 (Columbia), Assistant Professor of Geography, is a very familiar figure to the students since he is an advisor in the General College and serves as the faculty advisor to the student Y.M.C.A. He is a Fellow of the Social Science Research Council. His special field of interest is Latin American Geography, and he did his field work in Ecuador. Mr. Basile received a Tanner Award for excellence in teaching in 1957.

JOHN W. THIBAUT, Ph.D., 1949 (M.I.T.), Professor of Psychology and Sociology, and Chairman of the Department of Psychology, is on the Chancellor's Advisory Committee and affiliated with the Institute for Research in Social Science. One of the foremost social psychologists in the country, he is on the Board of Editors of the Journal of Personality and Social Forces and Sociometry and editorial consultant to Psychological Review. He is a member of the Research Panel for Sociology of the National Science Foundation. Dr. Thibaut is a contributor to various journals and the co-author of the celebrated textbook, Social Psychology of Groups.

ALFRED G. ENGSTROM, Ph.D., 1941 (North Carolina), Professor of Romance Languages, is on the Editorial Committee of the University of North Carolina Studies in Comparative Literature, on the Editorial Board of Romance Notes, and on the Editorial Board of the University of North Carolina Studies in Romance Languages and Literatures. Dr. Engstrom's special field of interest is French literature of the nineteenth century and he has done extensive work in the area of literary motifs and symbols. He is the author of numerous articles and reviews. This year Dr. Engstrom was named an Alumni Distinguished Professor.

ROBERT B. HOUSE, LL.D., (Catawba; Bowdoin), University Professor of English and Classics, is still affectionately known as Chancellor House since he made many outstanding contributions to the University of North Carolina in this position from 1945-1957. Dr. House has now returned to the classroom and students to teach several very popular courses in Greek and Latin Literature enhanced with his own sound philosophy and harmonica playing.

SAMUEL S. JONES, Ph.D., 1936 (Oxford), Professor of Political Science, was a Rhodes Scholar, and has been a Burton Craig Professor of Political Science since 1956. He served as Chairman of the Chancellor's Committee on International Studies in 1959. He is the author of several books and a contributor to various periodicals. Dr. Jones served as an officer in the U. S. State Department from 1942-1956. During the fall semester of this year, Dr. Jones taught a seminar at the Johns Hopkins Center for Advanced Studies.

KENNETH M. BRINKHOU, M.D., 1932 (Iowa), Professor of Pathology and Chairman of the Department of Pathology, is an international authority and research specialist in hemophilia. He is a member of the committee on blood coagulation of the National Research Council, a member of the medical advisory committee of the National Hemophilia Foundation, a scientific consultant to the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology, and Chairman of the Hematology Study Section of the United States Public Health Service. Dr. Brinkhous was voted the "best teacher" by the U.N.C. medical class of 1960. Last year, Dr. Brinkhous was awarded the O. Max Gardner Award for his research in blood disease and for his outstanding teaching and training of pathologists.

URBAN T. HOLMES, JR., Ph.D., 1923 (Harvard); Litt.D. (Washington and Lee), Kenan Professor of Romance Philology, is one of the outstanding language scholars in this country. He has served on the executive council of the Modern Language Association and as President of the South Atlantic Modern Language Association. He is a Fellow of the Medieval Academy and, in 1951, Dr. Holmes was awarded the medal of the Chevalier of the Legion of Honor by the French government. Dr. Holmes is editor of the University of North Carolina Studies in the Romance Languages and Literatures and editor of Romance Notes, a journal published by the Department of Romance Languages.

Gray Professor of Biblical Literature at the University of North Carolina since 1950. He is a member of the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, the American Schools of Oriental Research, and the National Association of Biblical Instructors. He is engaged in educational television and has taught many students through this medium. Dr. Boyd was the recipient of a Tanner Award for distinction in college teaching in 1956.

LOREN C. MACKINNEY, Ph.D., 1925 (Chicago), Kenan Professor of Medieval History, is especially interested in medieval history and particularly medical history during this period. He is on the editorial board of the American Historical Review and Manuscripta. He serves on a Liaison Committee on Microfilming for several learned societies. Dr. MacKinney is a past Chairman of the Honors Committee, and a past member of the Screening Committee for Fulbright Grants. At present, he is on the Advisory Board of Humanities. He is a member of the Medieval Academy and the Southern Historical Association. Dr. MacKinney has written an outstanding text entitled The Medieval World and contributed to numerous journals.

MAURICE W. LEE, Ph.D., 1939 (Chicago), Professor of Economics and Business and Dean of the School of Business Administration, is one of the leaders of thought on collegiate business education in this country. He has devoted a considerable amount of his energies to the work of the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business, serving, at various times, as President, Vice-President, and Chairman of the Committee on Standards of this organization. Dean Lee has served as a consultant to a variety of business firms, and to both the executive and legislative branches of the federal government. He has held various positions in the Office of Price Administration, including that of Executive Assistant to Administrator Chester Bowles. Dean Lee is the author of a variety of papers and books, including the major study Economic Fluctuations: Growth and Stability.

EVERETT D. PALMATIER, Ph.D., 1951 (Cornell), Kenan Professor of Physics and Chairman of the Department of Physics, has taken cosmic radiation as his special field of research. Last year, Dr. Palmatier had a National Science Foundation Senior Post-Doctoral Fellowship and spent the year studying at the University of Bristol, England. At present, Dr. Palmatier and his assistants are engaged in designing a satellite-borne experiment to measure cosmic rays above the atmosphere.

CLASSES

SENIORS

And like the longest day,
This phase must end.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Caroline Hewes, Social Chairman;
Kathy Fulemwidler, Secretary; Ward Marslender, Vice-President;
Wade Hargrove, Treasurer.

Ray Farris
President

We walk the old walks—older now
Past the well,
Over the slat bridge to the wind,
In whispers—
Too much of ourselves we leave in your streets
And too many are our footprints
Now deserted in your valleys
And if this is our day of harvest—
In what fields will our crops thrive?

We leave you
With a formless laugh in the crowd
And hollow echoes in the night,
And at day's end when our eyes we close
You will be the Hill of our memory,
Though we close our ears to the turmoil of the world
You will be the faint song we hear—
You were the brief walk across the face of time.

JUNIORS

The age of uncertainty is upon us
Let us drink on this, the eve of life's decision
A rip tide toast —
Wipe the sweat and indifference from our face
Pray for the cynic, the fool, and the followers of the faceless board —
"Know Thyself"...

Richard Vinroot
President

George Rosental
President

Come sophists,

Let us sit and smoke the accepted brand.

Explore we must

The madras fields of mind.

Discuss the varied shades of "sharp"

And make ourselves

Judges of men.

NURSING SCHOOL

The University of North Carolina School of Nursing — the youngest school in the oldest state university — celebrated its tenth anniversary this year.

In 1951, the school opened its doors to the first 26 students in North Carolina to enter a four-year collegiate nursing program. Dr. Elizabeth L. Kemble has been dean of the school since its opening, and other original faculty members were Mrs. Alice J. Gifford, Ruth Dalrymple, and Ruth M. Boyles.

Currently, the school has over 240 students enrolled. These include generic, general and graduate students. The faculty now has over 30 members.

The school continues to pursue the four-fold approach to the nursing needs of the state undertaken in 1951 — a mission to offer undergraduate education, graduate education, continuation education (through extension courses, institutes and workshops) and research in the field of nursing.

PHARMACY SCHOOL

The fall semester of 1961 marked the beginning of the sixty-fourth year of pharmaceutical education at the University of North Carolina and our third year in Beard Hall. The new pharmacy building was named Beard Hall last spring by trustee action to honor John Grover Beard, who was a Professor of Pharmacy and served from 1931 to 1946 as Dean.

Seventy-two seniors graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy, and there were sixteen students with studies leading to degrees of Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy with majors in Pharmacy or Pharmaceutical Chemistry.

A book, A History of the School of Pharmacy, was written by Miss Alice Noble, research historian. This was the first history of an individual school at the University to be published.

Pharmacy school consists of many formal lectures and laboratories, but also student organizations centered around points of interest, such as the Student Branches of the American Pharmaceutical Association and North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association, Rho Chi, Kappa Epsilon, Kappa Psi, Phi Delta Chi, and Pharmacy Senate. The social calendar is highlighted by fraternity dances, parties, the Christmas Party, Pharmacy Weekend, and Senior Commencement Picnic.

This is the School of Pharmacy — study on a professional level with extra-curricular and social activities designed to develop conscientious and well-rounded pharmacists to carry on a time-honored profession.

DENTAL SCHOOL

The faculty of the School of Dentistry deem it an unusual privilege to share their professional lives and experiences with the students in the several areas of dentistry, i.e., the undergraduate, postgraduate, and graduate programs, as well as in the Dental Hygiene Curriculum. Interesting and meaningful is the fact that the educational and professional standards established and maintained by the faculty become standards of the profession in the State of North Carolina, and, accordingly, the quality of dental health service available to the citizens.

The faculty again is proud to present its ninth graduating class in dentistry to the people of this state and nation. While more than ninety per cent of all dental graduates are residents of North Carolina, they may be found in private practice, teaching, research, the Armed Forces, Public Health Service, and Departments of Health throughout the country and world. We are equally proud of the graduates from the Dental Hygiene Curriculum, as well as those who have achieved their Certificate or Master's Degree in one of the specialty areas, i.e., Orthodontics or Pedodontics.

Important and interesting, too, is the expression of leadership from many of our graduates in dental education, research, private practice, and organizational activities on a local and national level. Such leadership provides additional status to this school and the profession.

Another area of leadership and signal recognition afforded this school is the substantial grant received from the Public Health Service for the training of teachers and researchers for other universities in the specialty fields of Orthodontics and Pedodontics. This program was activated in June, 1960. The School of Dentistry working with the Graduate School now affords several other graduate programs for those dentists who are qualified and who may elect to limit their practice or teaching to a recognized specialty.

Progress in teaching and practice continues to be a major objective of the faculty. The present graduating class has received additional intensive clinical training in the effective utilization of dental assistants. This additional instruction and training, made possible by another grant from the Public Health Service, will provide a greater opportunity for service to all patients.

Postgraduate or refresher course instruction is another very important area of instruction permitting dentists from this state and part of the country to devote one or more weeks in concentrated study and additional clinical work. Dentists who graduated five, ten, or more years ago find it desirable to pursue continued postgraduate work. Accordingly, this School of Dentistry has featured a number of short courses each year, and the demand continues to increase annually.

While the State Legislature provides a substantial budget annually for the operation of the School of Dentistry, the funds which have been made available through the Dental Foundation of North Carolina, Incorporated, permit an enrichment of the teaching and research programs which is meaningful and helpful to the students, faculty, and patients. The closed circuit television equipment is an excellent example, wherein the Dental Foundation has made possible a finer and more adequate teaching program. The University Administration as well as the faculty, therefore, are grateful for the loyalty and fine support which has been given to the School by the Alumni, the profession, and its friends throughout the state.

MEDICAL SCHOOL

1961-62 has been another profitable year in this University's education of new physicians. The School of Medicine, known as a paragon since its inception in 1830, has offered the complete 4 year undergraduate medical program only during the past 9 years, but in that time has risen to a point considered by all as unsurpassed in medical education.

During this year the Memorial Hospital has incorporated new patient care facilities as well as new research potentialities, both designed to better the medical attention offered to all who enter in need of care.

The staff of the School of Medicine and the Memorial Hospital not only maintain the instruction of the medical students, but include in their teaching program the education of members of the various Health Affairs departments and the interested practicing physicians throughout this state.

LAW SCHOOL

The Law School, which developed into the School of Law of the University, was founded in 1843 at Chapel Hill as a private school by William H. Battle, then a judge of the Superior Court, later a justice of the Supreme Court of the state. In 1845, Judge Battle was made Professor of Law in the University, and it was provided that the degree of Bachelor of Laws should be conferred on those completing the prescribed two-year course. From the records of the University, however, it seems that few degrees were actually conferred. For a long time the School maintained a certain independence of the University. The professor of law received no salary, though he enjoyed the fees from his classes. The students were not entirely subject to the discipline of the University.

This was the position of the School during the professorship of Judge Battle, who retired in 1879; during the two years when the law classes were conducted by Kemp P. Battle, then President of the University; and, to a considerable extent, during the professorship of John Manning, who was elected in 1881 and died in 1899. The building in which the School is now conducted was named for Professor Manning. In 1899, the School was completely incorporated into the University, with the late James C. MacRae, previously a justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, as the first Dean. He was succeeded in 1910 by Dean Lucius P. McGehee, who served in that capacity until 1923.

With the construction of its new home in 1923, the law school entered its "modern" era. Serving successively as deans were: Merton Leroy Ferguson, 1924-26; Abner Leon Green, 1926-27; Charles T. McCormick, 1927-31; Maurice T. Van Hecke, 1931-41; Robert H. Wettach, 1941-49; and Henry P. Brandis, Jr., 1949 to date.

PUBLIC HEALTH SCHOOL

Every community has certain health matters that must be approached on the basis of public action. For example, how can an urban dweller provide himself with a pure and wholesome milk or water supply? How can the impoverished or even the average income family deal with a hopelessly crippled child, or with grievous mental illness?

This list could be increased a thousandfold — health problems that might conceivably be handled privately by very resourceful individuals but which are more likely to be dealt with on the basis of community action.

Of such, then, is public health — the art and the science of community diagnosis and treatment.

When such enterprise is based on community action, trained people are needed to do the job in the interest of efficiency and economy.

Coming within the realm of public affairs, public health will always be a controversial professional activity. For some a little is too much. For others there is never enough in the name of the common good. Thus the tides ebb and flow.

Be that as it may, what is done must be done well, hence North America's fourteen accredited Schools of Public Health. The University of North Carolina operates one of these. Public health leadership emanates from such schools and a sizable portion of operative personnel is trained therein.

Our School of Public Health partakes of State, National, and International flavor. A third of the students are Tarheels. There are always a dozen to a score of international students. The remainder come from the far corners of the nation with emphasis upon the Southeast.

There are ten operating departments. Student body and faculty alike are of many disciplines. Administration, Biostatistics, Epidemiology, Health Education, Maternal and Child Health, Mental Health, Public Health Nursing, Parasitology, Nutrition and Sanitary Engineering comprise the building blocks.

The student body numbers usually from one hundred sixty to two hundred. Faculty is on the order of seventy-five, a fairly high ratio to students because of the very considerable amount of research that is undertaken.

There is a measure of undergraduate training. Masters candidates comprise the bulk of the student body. Fifteen or twenty are to be found usually in pursuit of doctoral degrees.

Handsome and commodious quarters are to be occupied in the fall of 1962. The new, long-sought and long-needed Public Health Building will be finished at that time.

SPORTS

The Tarheels in 1961 played both exciting and dull football: they upset some teams and they were upset: they showed running prowess and passing ability — in short the Heels were the same good, but not great, football team of old. No more exciting game was played in 1961 than at Kenan Stadium when Tennessee dropped a 22-21 thriller, but in Columbia both Carolina and South Carolina played one of the duller games of the year. Maryland found out the Tarheels could come up with a big win while Wake Forest showed that the men in blue could be upset by the conference's worst. So it went: losing some that should have been won, and winning some that were called upsets.

Head Coach Jim Hickey's team was led in the line by all ACC guard Jim LeCompte. LeCompte played well in all games and showed why he was a co-captain of the team. There were other good players on the team: Elliott, Farris, Craver, Carson, Davies, Green, and Runco. The two positions which seemed most abundant in talent were the ends with Lacey, Runco, Sloop and Yates; and the fullback slot where Bob Elliott and Joe Davies proved themselves the best in the conference.

The Heels made their bid for Carolina's first conference championship since the Justice Era but fell short — a field goal short — in Durham one November afternoon. With that loss went not only the conference crown but the Victory Bell and the desire to win the last two games of the season.

Perhaps if nothing else the 1961 season was a training session for next year's Carolina team. Certainly one has to look hard to find other benefits of the '61 team. Next year (as UNC takes on Ohio State, Michigan State, and Notre Dame) may well bring the same results as this year's team, for Carolina insists on playing big-time football with small time money. Let's all hope that future seasons will be more profitable than this; at the same time let's not be too harsh on the 1961 edition for the Tarheels.

CAROLINA 27—STATE 22

A fast, explosive start and a threatening finish by State's favored Wolfpack were both taken in stride by a cool Carolina team that waxed red-hot in the middle stages of play in as exciting an opening encounter as Kenan Stadium spectators on home-game Saturday afternoons can recall. The final score was 27-22, in Carolina's favor, as 44,000 fans sat in perfect football weather.

State started the game off with a bang by scoring first on an 83-yard kickoff and a field goal a few minutes later. Carolina soon took over command of the game and built up such a commanding lead in the third period that State's Gabriel could never overcome the Tarheel advantage.

Gib Carson scored three touchdowns and gained 61 yards on three passes and 15 carries. Bob Elliott scored one touchdown and kicked three extra points.

CAROLINA 14—MARYLAND 8

Joe Davies is finally collared by two Clemson backs.

"The worst game of the season," so said Coach Hickey concerning the mauling the Tarheels received at the hands of Clemson. Few who witnessed the game disagreed. Clemson was up for the game while Carolina was flat . . . a position they maintained for most of the game . . . and the combination spelled defeat for Hickey's men. Of noteworthy fault was Carolina's leaky pass defense: yielding 13 passes, two for touchdowns, and 134 yards.

Undampened in spirit and in desire by their licking of the previous Saturday, by Maryland's high national ranking, or by the rain, an alert and aggressive Carolina team maneuvered a big upset in edging undefeated Maryland in Byrd Stadium at College Park, Maryland.

Ability to play possession ball and to cash in on their opponent's fumbles as well as their own proved big factors in the Tarheel's upending Maryland.

Halfback Gib Carson, playing one of the best all-round games of his career, would have scored both Carolina touchdowns had he not fumbled as he crossed the goal line. Good luck prevailed though. Lenny Beck and Ray Farris were the right men at the right times and fell on both Carson fumbles to give the Heels the needed scores.

North Carolina took on the University of South Carolina in Columbia just after defeating the mighty Maryland team. The play in Carolina stadium was uninspiring to say the least. If Carolina had been playing ball as they had the week before the score would have been disgraceful, for the Gamecocks, that is. As it was, the Heels did not need a steller performance to turn back our Southern friends.

Addison scored in the first quarter to put the Blue in front 7-0. Bob Elliott made it 10-0 at the half on a 20-yard field goal. The only other scoring was by flashy sophomore end Bob Lacey when he went 40 yards with an intercepted pass.

There was little sunshine in the Orange Bowl as both Miami and the weather combined to stop the Carolina hopes by defeating the Tarheels 10-0.

A field goal in the second period and a brilliantly executed pass and run play in the final quarter got Miami its 10 points. The strong Carolina defense that had limited N. C. State, Maryland, and South Carolina to an average of 38 yards rushing, fought off three other threatening thrusts but were not able to stop the two scoring gusts of the Miami Hurricanes.

CAROLINA 22—TENNESSEE 21

The University of Tennessee has, over the years, built one of the best won-lost records among major college teams. This has been done at the expense of teams like Chattanooga, Tulsa, and Carolina. HA-HA! Not this year. Carolina played its best game of the season and on a desperate last-minute dive for glory, won over the Orange Ogres from Knoxville, 22-21. Despite Glass, Orr, and Faircloth, galloping Gib, and Big Bob (along with a hard charging line, sharp pass receivers, and a level headed quarterback), brought Bowden and his boys a loss they won't readily forget.

Carolina took command of the game and scored on a Farris sneak to go ahead 7-0. UT tied the score for the first time as the first quarter ended. The Tarheels stormed right back and took a 14-7 lead which they held at the half. North Carolina did not have to punt once in the first half. UT dominated the second half, at least most of it, as they tied the score and then took a 21-14 lead. Then the fireworks began.

With 81 seconds left in the game Farris moved 66 yards with four pass plays. Then Farris flipped a final pass to Marslender good for 28 yards and the third Tarheel score. Behind by one point, the mighty Tarheels lined up and calmly scored a heart-stopping pass play good for two points and the victory.

The goal posts were torn down in 3.42 seconds, a new conference record.

Gib Carson scores two points to win the game over Tennessee 22-21.

Early in the first quarter Carson starts off on a 60 yard run against the Vols.

Homecoming was marred by a Southeastern Conference team that combined both speed and power into one of the top five teams in the nation. Louisiana State University came to Chapel Hill with three of the best teams seen here in many seasons. Paul Deitzel had eleven men on his first team that played offense and defense; he had twenty-two men on his second team — eleven played offense and eleven played strictly defense.

Carolina made some glaring mistakes in the first quarter that cost us thirteen points: LSU scored two long touchdowns with ease. From that time until the fourth period the Tarheels played a respectable game, giving up only a field goal in the second period to trail at the half 16-0. It was in the fourth period that the Tigers' overall depth began to show. LSU scored on two long drives while the undermanned Heels stood by and watched; they could forestall the inevitable only so long. The final score was 30-0.

Playing before a regional television audience, Carolina entertained dreams that another upset like that of a week previous would take place. LSU had just upset Mississippi, then the number one team in the country, and UNC had upset Tennessee. Perhaps LSU would be flat; perhaps Carolina could get a couple of quick scores and hold on to win; perhaps hell might freeze over; the Bayou Bengals were not to be denied.

CAROLINA 3—Dook training school 6

Playing before regional television for the second week in a row the Tarheels dropped a field goal duel to Dook, 6-3. Both teams played well and the outcome was in doubt at all times. Carolina scored in the second period on a Bob Elliott field goal and in the fourth period on a Ray Farris run. Fortunately, for the rock pile, a quick whistle from your friend and mine, the referee, nullified the Farris touchdown. After missing two short field goal attempts, the law of averages caught up with Jack Wilson of Dook and he hit in the fourth period to tie the game at 3-3.

Late in the final period a Farris pass was picked off and run back deep in Carolina territory. Again an official obliged Dook; this time with a costly 15-yard penalty that put the ball in such position that even Mr. Wilson couldn't miss on a field goal attempt. Carolina tried to score with about two seconds left in the game by running and lateraling the ball to another player. It was in vain, as Carolina lost the Victory Bell, the conference title, but most of all, lost to the gothic rock pile.

CAROLINA 14—WAKE FOREST 17

A lifeless Carolina team went to play somebody; oh yes, Wake Forest in Winston-Salem. While the Tarheel fans yawned, the Demon Deacons slipped off with the victory, 17-14. For most students and possibly the football team as well, the season had ended a week earlier in Durham. The second team started for Carolina and gave up the first touchdown handed to Wake Forest. Bob Elliott tied the score in the second period but Wake fell on a blocked punt in the second half to take a third quarter 14-7 lead. Farris scored in the fourth period on a one-yard plunge. With 25 seconds left in the game Wake Forest pulled a repeat of the week before and defeated the listless Heels with a 22-yard field goal. No one seemed to care; the student body was uninterested, the coaches weren't burned or hanged.

The week before the Virginia game was quiet in Chapel Hill, as had been the days prior to the Wake game — not even the filching of Rameses by the Baptists caused concern on the Hill.

CAROLINA 24—VIRGINIA 0

"Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus, but he didn't make the scene in Kenan Stadium Saturday and you lost . . . 24-0. That was about it.

Before some 28,000 fans in Kenan Stadium, Carolina finished the season in a big way: a rather popular idea around these parts for the last three seasons. (Anyone remember The Game, Carolina 50, Dook 0, or Carolina 35, Virginia 3?) The Tarheels used the Virginia team that was fresh from an upset of bowl minded Maryland to finish out a 5-5 season.

The much improved Cavaliers were held to 121 yards rushing and passing; in fact, they remained so bottled up throughout the game that only once did they get as far as the 23-yard line of Carolina. As for the Tarheels, it was a different story. Ray Farris finished out his grid career in fine fashion as he led the Heels to 319 yards net yardage. The Carolina offense also clicked for 12 of 24 passes and ran off 73 plays from the line of scrimmage.

The scoring was divided equally between Carson with a touchdown in the first quarter. Addison a two-yard plunge in the second, Farris got the final touchdown in the fourth, and Elliott scored three conversions and a field goal in the first quarter for six points.

Only four points kept the Freshmen football team from a perfect 5-0 season. As it turned out the Frosh lost to State 6-7 and to Clemson 27-30. From then through Thanksgiving when the Tarbabies slaughtered Dook 7-6 no team could stop the tough defense that Coach Barclay's boys were able to throw up.

Led by the passing of Gary Black and the rushing of Ken Willard, Dick Zarro, and Ron Jackson the Tarbabies called attention to the fact that next year's sophomores will be tough. Good ends are already abundant on the varsity but now two more will be added: Frank Gallagher and Billy Axelle. Coaching this fine team were Wade Smith, John Schroeder, and George Barclay.

BASKETBALL

As the 1961-62 basketball season closed, Carolina became the second best de-emphasized ball team in the state. Our brothers on the "State Farm" were the best. Carolina's 7-7 ACC record was sufficient to tie us with South Carolina for fourth place in the Conference and State tied nationally ranked Duke for second place. The highly touted Deacons of Wake Forest did not live up to their pre-season expectations but in the wild ax-swinging that always accompanies an ACC race, they managed to profit from the rolling heads and cop first place in the regular season play.

Carolina was a relatively inexperienced team with a new head coach. The team was not talent-laden as in past years but had a solid core of returning lettermen. Even though greatly hampered by a limited schedule which prevented some members of the Tarheel squad from gaining valuable experience, Coach Smith still turned out a polished team upholding Carolina's tradition.

The high point of the season came as the Tarheels won their first game with State by a 10 point margin (66-56) and ran their season's record up to six wins and two defeats. Unfortunately, this was followed by four straight losses, one of which was to State. Carolina split games with South Carolina and Maryland and lost two games each to Duke and Wake Forest. Carolina played good ball against the Blue Devils and the Deacons but was outclassed both in skill and height.

The Carolina team posted two wins over both Virginia and Clemson while playing the same type of ball that lost to Duke and Wake Forest. This year proved a greater disparity of basketball strength among the "Big Four" than has been true in the past.

Although the Carolina team certainly needs no excuse for an 8-8 record, it is interesting to note that in the first eight games, Carolina had a 6-2 record and in the last nine, a 2-7 record. It is possible that our team did not continue to improve at the same rate as teams with a full schedule.

Larry Brown and Jim Hudock led Carolina statistics, tying each other for most total points scored in one game (26) and most free throws made in one game (12). Charlie Shaffer, who became a member of the starting team late in the season, made 10 field goals out of 12 attempts against Clemson for the best individual accuracy mark. Brown led the individual scoring averages with 16.4 per game which was greatly helped by his 26 points in two games and 12 free throws in three games. Hudock was second highest scorer (15.3 average) and Donnie Walsh, the third (13.6 average). Brown tied for fifth position on the star studded ACC first team and Hudock was picked for the ACC second team. Donohue, Cooke, and McSweeney all did a great deal toward making the ball club as good as it was.

The opening round of the ACC Tournament saw the Tarheels defeated 57-55 by South Carolina in a game that should have been a victory but was turned into defeat in the last few minutes of play. Thus ended Carolina's first losing season since 1955.

Remember . . . the trees above the stadium brilliant with color, that first football afternoon, and the air of expectant excitement mixed with the music that blared forth from the loud speakers.

Remember . . . when our efforts to rouse the stands to cheer were met by hardly enough response to drown our voices, and those times when the echo from the assembled throng prevented any other sound from reaching our ears. The band played as we ran and flipped in front of our team when it burst onto the field — those big games and those heartwarming and heart-aching touchdowns — when the final gun went off, and the crowd rushed onto the field.

Remember . . . basketball season — the crowded gym and the never ceasing whistle of the referee.

How nice it would be to wake up tomorrow and have it September and our games all ahead of us — those Carolina games that we'll remember as long as we live.

The 1960-61 Carolina Wrestling Team, ably coached by Sam Barnes, came in second in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

For the season, the team posted an unimpressive 5-6-0 record, but three of the victories came over ACC teams. Carolina won over Virginia, Duke, and State, losing only to perennial power Maryland.

Individual Carolina wrestlers showed great improvement by coming in over the third place team in the ACC Championships with a large margin. Coach Barnes' tournament style wrestling designed to pay off in the multiple matches of a tournament paid off at the season's end.

This year, in a truly inauspicious beginning, Carolina Wrestlers have lost their first five matches, but Coach Barnes thinks that there is still hope for a good season and strong hope for the tournament.

Carolina Swimmers posted an impressive (9-3) record in 1960-61, losing only to nationally ranked Navy and Southern Illinois, and being upset by Maryland. This surprising loss, due mainly to the absence of two key swimmers, left Carolina, Maryland, and North Carolina State, each with one loss in ACC competition. The three way tie was resolved by calling each team a Tri-Champ of the Conference.

This year, with a strong returning team, Carolina has beaten each of their first four rivals by a large margin. All-American Thompson Mann and Co-Captains Bob Billbro and Bob Briggs have made heavy contributions to Carolina's winning efforts. Coach Pat Earey says his boys are working hard and are looking forward to a good season.

BASEBALL

Coach Walter Rabb

In keeping with the trend since Walter Rabb became head coach of Carolina's Baseball Team, the 1960-61 team had a very successful season. Falling slightly below their 1959-60 mark of ACC Champions, the Carolina "Nine" placed second in the ACC with a 10-4 record and a 15-6 record overall.

Able paced by the batting of All-American Jim Mooring and second baseman Paul Swing, Carolina was a hard hitting ball team, averaging 6.85 runs per game in 21 games of the 60-61 season. Nicky Warren, a pitcher now turned pro, had never pitched a losing game in college before 1960-61. Last year he accounted for 7 of Carolina's 15 wins by pitching a 7 won, none lost record.

In spite of losing Warren, Mooring, Tommy Camp, Carroll Bolick, Ferg Norton, and others, Carolina has 9 lettermen returning and hopes for a good season.

Probable starting lineup for this spring will be: Catcher, Frady; First Base, Delolloio; Second Base, Swing; Short Stop, Speight, a sophomore; Third Base, Neal; Outfielders, Hull, Spainhour, Russ Hollers, or possibly a junior transfer, Buddy Tilden. Returning pitchers with the most experience are Murr, Whacker, and Jenkins with Andy Billesdon and Spencer Willard as sophomore possibilities.

TENNIS

David Morgan

Don Skakle embarks upon his fourth year as coach of the Carolina Tennis Team. Last season Skakle won his third Atlantic Coach Conference title and the seventh title for the Tarheel netmen in the eight years that the Conference has been organized. The 1962 team appears to be another typically strong Carolina team. Returning lettermen Garland Carlton, Keith Stoneman, Bill Shettle, George Zimmerman, Kirby Jones, and David Morgan will be bolstered by Stan Cocke and all of a strong freshman team.

Gone from the team are Bruce Sylvia and Tommy Ricks. Sylvia carried Carolina to the Tournament Championships and grabbed the individual title as well. Despite the loss of these two outstanding players, Coach Skakle will again have the powerhouse typical of Carolina tennis since 1909. The young coach is optimistic enough to predict only one possible loss in this year's twenty-three game schedule. Miami's Puerto Rican laden team poses the only serious threat to the Heels.

It looks like another banner year for the UNC netmen.

GOLF

The 1961 Golf season was mainly a season of rebuilding, with our '61 effort rebuilt around the only returning letterman, All-American Pete Green. In spite of their inexperience, the Heels came along very fast and ended their season with a 4-4 record for the two-team matches.

The Tarheels were much more impressive in the ACC tournament than their seasonal record indicated they would be. The Tarheel linksmen led the field the first day of the tournament, but the second and last day found them a surprisingly strong runner-up to the Duke champions.

Carolina's golf hopes for 1962 look very bright with the return of 4 of the first 6 golfers of the 1961 team. The returnees include the three pictured here: All-American, Pete Green, No. 1 on the '61 team; Denny White, No. 2 on the '61 team; and John Brabson, No. 4 on the '61 team.

MONOGRAM CLUB

The Monogram Club is an honorary organization for Carolina athletes who have received one or more letter awards for participation in varsity sports. Set apart by the extra time and effort each of them contribute to better the school's athletic standing, they form a very congenial and useful club membership.

This has been an eventful year for the club, as the club room has been moved from its location on Country Club Road to a newly decorated room on the ground floor of Woollen Gym. The club members agree that the new location in the school's athletic center is a great improvement. The room itself is a very large one with a meeting room on one side of a Trophy Case partition and a game room on the other side.

Some of the Monogram Club's accomplishments this year include sponsoring the attendance at a home football game of a group of orphans and the entertainment of high school athletic prospects. The Club has also made plans to get an Alumni team for an opponent in the annual Blue-White game.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Women's Athletic Association is to provide opportunities for participation in various recreational activities, and to promote interest in women's athletics. This purpose is accomplished through an extensive intramural program, including competition in both individual and team sports. The W.A.A. sponsors many diversified clubs such as the Splash Club, Tennis Club, Modern Dancing Club, and many others. The association does not stop at women's athletics, but also sponsors the Co-Rec Carnival, Co-Rec Volleyball, and Co-Rec Swimming. STUDENT ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The Student Athletic Council was established by the Student Legislature in 1959 to serve as a co-ordinating body for athletic matters. It is composed of thirteen persons including leaders of various athletic-oriented student organizations, as well as representatives from the legislative and executive branches of Student Government. The specific projects of the Council are left to the discretion and initiative of the Council itself, but periodical reports are made to the Student Legislature.

The Council's work includes co-ordinating the display and beauty contest for Homecoming, organizing the Carolina Sweethearts, who welcome visiting athletic teams to the campus, and serving as a co-ordinator of half-time shows at football games. The body is concerned with student support of the UNC teams through the improvement of school spirit. Its aim is to communicate the school spirit to the athletic teams which represent the University in intercollegiate competition. The Student Athletic Council also endeavors to carry the views, desires, and needs of the students to the officials of the Athletic Department.

The Board of Directors, composed of both faculty and students, is the policy-making body of the student union while the Graham Memorial Activities Board plans and directs the many extra-curricular activities that are connected with the G.M. program.

The Open Door Policy is still in effect at G.M. Its doors stand open at all times, welcoming students — any and all students —

- to the warmth and comfort of the main lounge,
- to the offices of Student Government, where everyone has a job,
- to the offices of the campus publications: the Yack, the Carolina Quarterly, and the Daily Tarheel, where one becomes more than just a face in the crowd,
- to the many recreational activities: ping-pong, pool, dancing in the Rendezvous Room, which just had a face-lifting,
- to the TV room,
- to membership on G.M.A.B. or other committees designed to promote leadership and individual responsibility or, if nothing more,
- to sit down for a few minutes . . . and relax . . .

GRAHAM MEMORIAL ACTIVITIES BOARD

The Graham Memorial Activities Board is the central functioning unit of the student union. Its purpose is to bring together all phases of campus life — the academic, the recreational, the cultural, and the social. Inherent within this purpose is the obligation on the part of G.M.A.B. to meet the needs of every student in the University and to strive to enlarge upon the opportunities and benefits of study presented to the students. In addition, G.M.A.B. offers the opportunity to the students for developing leadership and responsibility by encouraging participation in its wide field of committee activity. These committees handle the planning and presentation of the various union functions from appearances by big-name entertainers to dance lessons, from combo parties to informal gatherings in the main lounge.

The spring is always highlighted by the annual presentation of the Sound and Fury, an original musical which is student-written, student-produced, and student-acted.

The G.M.A.B. office is on the second floor of Graham Memorial. Come in anytime!

DANCE COMMITTEE

The University Dance Committee members, distinguished by their blue and white rosettes, act traditionally as hosts for Carolina's dances. Thanks to the expert planning of the sponsoring organizations, all the dances this year were successes. This outstanding record marks for the Committee one of the most successful years in its history.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

From its inception, the Y.M.C.A. at the University of North Carolina has been dedicated to intellectual freedom, to student initiative, and to responsibility. Working within the framework of the Christian faith, students and faculty members have probed issues and ideas affecting people anywhere and everywhere.

The Y.M.C.A. has always sought to serve wherever student needs arise. In recent decades it has initiated the Book Exchange, Freshman Orientation Program, Intramural Athletics, and the Placement Bureau. Thus many organizations now operating as an integral part of our campus life were at one time a service to the University given by the Y.M.C.A. In the realm of international relations and political life, the U.N. Seminars, the Cosmopolitan Club, the Symposium on Public Affairs, and seminars abroad are valuable programs founded by the Y.M.C.A.

This year the Foreign Student Hospitality Committee and the Fraternity Study Commission have been added to the list of services sponsored by this organization.

This is the Y.M.C.A.'s one hundred and first year on the Carolina campus, and it is still poised for action in any area of campus life. If there is need for more discussion and development of a controversial subject, or if the opportunity to know interesting and existing people is desired, then possibilities for facing these situations can be found within the Y.M.C.A.'s broad approach to student life.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Y.W.C.A. at Carolina is an interdenominational organization founded on Christian ideals and beliefs and open to all coeds. The aim of this group is two-fold: to serve the community and to lead the campus toward a better understanding of problems current in the modern world.

An executive council, composed of eight elected officers, and a cabinet of twenty-two selected committee chairmen comprise the core of the Y's organization. Committees are geared to meet the interests of every coed by offering opportunities for experiences in a variety of activities. A few of the areas include volunteer aid at Memorial Hospital, recreational work with children at the Blind School, Catholic and Methodist Orphanages; the preparation of a model U.N. Assembly; participation in various conferences concerning prescribed topics of discussion; and the organization of a Vesper Program in the coed residences.

In all of its endeavors, the Y.W.C.A. seeks to offer its members an opportunity both to work and to learn with their fellow students. Above all, however, the Y attempts to keep

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

Students are always welcome at the Baptist Student Union to participate in a varied program of stimulating and creative activities. Supper-Study is a main feature at the B.S.U. Center on Friday evening along with vespers and meditation periods through the week. Students also express their Christian faith through special retreats and service projects.

EPISCOPAL STUDENT CONGREGATION

Episcopal undergraduates at U.N.C. meet informally once a week in the parish house of the Chapel of the Cross as the Canterbury Association. In eating together, in worship, in discussion and recreation, they seek to understand better their position as Christian students enrolled in a secular institution.

The Episcopal Student Congregation Council coordinates the activities of Canterbury with those of other groups meeting needs of students not represented in Canterbury.

This year marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation at U.N.C.

Hillel exists to relate the Jewish student to his heritage of the past, to make him aware of his present, and to prepare him for his future within the Jewish Community. These objectives are met through religious, cultural, and social activities that include Sabbath services, discussion and study groups, workshops, and lectures.

HILLEL FOUNDATION

The Lutheran Student Association is a group of students concerned with the growth and expression of their faith in the academic community. It meets every Sunday night in the Parish Hall of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church for a meal, devotions, and the presentation of topics covering a wide variety of subjects. Members find in it a means of worship, friendship, fellowship, recreation, and development of the mature Christian.

LUTHERAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club is a Catholic Organization on campus. It presents a varied program of intellectual, religious, and social events, and meets every two weeks beginning with a supper in St. Thomas More Church. The officers are President, Maxine Greenfield; Vice-President, Ray Farris; Secretary, Mary Alys Heim; Treasurer, Phil Baddour, and Social Chairman, Joe Powell.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE ORGANIZATION

The Christian Science Organization at U.N.C. consists of University student and faculty members who are interested in learning about Christian Science and of members of the Christian Science Church.

The Organization has weekly meetings conducted by a student who reads selected passages from the Bible and the Christian Science textbook. After the readings, the meeting is open for experiences, testimonies, and remarks or discussions about Christian Science.

The Cosmopolitan Club, open to students and townspeople from all nations of the world, is dedicated to fostering world understanding of diverse peoples and cultures. Its aims are to give the University community a more accurate representation of its foreign guests and to give the foreign student a more accurate and well rounded picture of American life.

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB

The International Students' Board is a coordinating agency for the various campus organizations which are internationally oriented and concerned with the international student community. It also serves as the point of origin for student government projects in international awareness, student exchanges, and visiting delegations from abroad.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS' BOARD

Among the activities of the Board is research into study, travel, and exchange opportunities in various nations.

Ninety per cent of this year's staff was from Hickory, North Carolina, despite the efforts of the National Association for the Advancement of Non-Hickoryites (N.A.A.N.H.).

Nevertheless the Daily Tar Heel improved. We got new type faces, bought a Polaroid camera and went to six pages once a week, because the capitalist pigs in the advertising department peddled so many ads.

A loosening of restrictions of letters to the editor filled the edit pages weeks in advance. The hotter issues were theater picketing, House Un-American Activities Committee, class elections, conservatism vs. liberalism, dorm searches and student-administration relations.

The King of the World didn't come to see us this year, but the President did.

The Daily Tar Heel put out a special edition of the November bond issue which was mailed to 6,000 voters throughout the state.

More money was given to the paid staffers . . . the Daily Tar Heel was able to cover more out-of-town stories since the Student Legislature gave us a $300 traveling account. There was talk about buying our own press, but nothing happened.

Hobbs and Clot fought for New York Times and New York Daily News layout respectively. King didn't like either one, but then, he's only the editor.

In general, Saturdays at the Daily Tar Heel were happy hours . . . petitions for the abolishment of everything were circulated.

There's nothing like starting the year (fiscal) out right by ridding yourself of all those traces of last year's memories. Our spacious, bowling-alley-shaped office lost its "eye-ease" green color with the newly selected staff pitching in financially and physically to produce a light blue and brown outside office. The editors chose a relaxing mustard color to brighten the walls but it produced so many headaches that the only thing that saved the entire staff from running out was Mr. Henry's donation of travel posters to blot out the wall. Now the place looks like a steamship boiler room with those damn red pipes that Coffman was so nutty about. "Happy birthday, Jerry Bear," sang all the glorious staff to the illustrious co-editor . . . along with the festivities came Chianti and cookies and cake . . . Millie and Joolie really know how to throw the parties. Between Julie's throwing parties, knitting, and crossing out, there was very little time for her to go around and personally initiate with the traditional "bear hug."

The entire staff, of course, was greatly indebted to the tremendous effort put in by Bobby Bear (who never did lift his finger to do one ounce of work . . . but then again, it would be a real bungling mess if he was allowed to help). Keeping the co-editors in constant panic was Teddy Bear, whose tall tales he was reputed to have experienced were almost too much to believe. It was almost as if he had subscribed to the accident-a-week club. Can't understand why Mary Ann didn't want her beauty court queen pictures taken horizontally in black leotards . . . something about looking like the playmate of the month . . . well maybe if she had a few more "cokes" at the planetarium she might have agreed. . . . Plant operations were viewed daily by Kay Bear. . . . "What fun watching all those people work!!!" Joy and Mary were so concerned about the seniors that they didn't work in the office — afraid they would never get anything accomplished with all the noise!!! The editors' biggest worry — will Jack and Dave ever get the sports started?

Why is Al so damn wise? It is hard to believe that one person could be so uppity! . . . "Why, Betsy, it certainly is nice to see you here today." . . . Ann and Bev and Sybil — so efficient — a joy to have them on the staff, of course Linda Bear could not be overlooked either. . . . Jane Paden, "Where is the copy? Please!" Lost among the leopard and zebra skins. That room on the third floor Spencer certainly was the most interesting sight Dick Bear had seen all year. . . . Did everyone see the life size head shot of Jerry Bear?? . . . Champagne and steak arranged by Buxton and Puller and then the contest — the Korn File. . . . Zalk and his squirrel shots. . . . Sams and his Yack party shots — What an orgy! . . . No one even knows Ann and Ginny are on the staff except the editors and Frank — and Frank really knows — taking all the faculty hasn't exactly been fun. . . . Frannie, you've been quaffing punch again — how about a swearing contest? . . . Ev and Chris — bears!! . . . Julie-Jack butterfly! . . . Charles and John, Faye and Ellen wonderful workers! . . . Coffman (he keeps Jack doing his work) captions and captions — too bad we can't use any of that filth! . . . Jay Bailey cut out that twisting! Malcolm, since you're on finance committee, how about getting the Yack appropriations increased . . . thanks! . . . Henry Chason, "How about typing a few more junior cards" . . . "Are you going to have an index this year?" . . . ask Annette and Linda . . . Margaret Horner and Laura Sharp are so quiet that we sometimes don't even know they're around . . . Sue Grimes-type, type . . . Deadlines — remember, we all lose if they are not met . . . Ben spilled the ice . . . Frank, the professionals are calling . . . Cone came late but has added much to the party . . . Ted, Julie, and Dick all drop courses because of exhaustion and the Yack . . . sure hope the student body likes the book because the staff who put it out had a hell of a time doing it.

CAROLINA QUARTERLY

The Carolina Quarterly held onto its reputation as one of the country's best student-edited writing and graphics magazines. The magazine also moved into the big-time again with a modest pay policy from contributions, made possible in part by outside patronage. The fever of students for their own writing was satisfied by the Quarterly's weekly writing workshops. And the Quarterly's advertising posters again decorated campus billboards: consequently, campus subscriptions doubled over the previous year. With its active staff, the Quarterly continues to discover and publish the best writers on campus.

CAROLINA HANDBOOK

The Carolina Handbook has been U.N.C.'s official Orientation guide for all new male students since 1891. The main aim of the Handbook is to give the incoming student an all encompassing survey of life at Carolina as seen from the students' viewpoint. First published by the Y.M.C.A. in an edition of sixteen pages, the Handbook became a member of the Carolina Publications Board and has since operated free of Y.M.C.A., faculty, or administration control. In its seventy-first year of publication, the Handbook has expanded to over 140 pages with sections dealing with all phases of campus life. This year the Handbook was published by a 22-member staff operating under a budget of $3,657.80.

Its membership consists of a chairman, secretary, the Finance Committee chairman, three Presidential Appointees, two Student Legislature members, the Student Body Treasurer, the editor and business manager of each publication, and two faculty advisors.

The Board strives to preserve the outstanding record of U.N.C. student publications.

THE CAROLINA PLAYMAKERS

The Carolina Playmakers serve a dual purpose as a laboratory organization for the Department of Dramatic Art and a community theatre. Participation is not limited to students in the department, but The Carolina Playmakers use actors and technicians from all departments of the University as well as people from the community.

The 1961-62 season included Thornton Wilder's "The Matchmaker," John Gay's "The Beggar's Opera," Lawrence and Lee's "Only in America," Christopher Marlowe's "Doctor Faustus," and a new play, "Renegade," by Carl Hinrichs. The Carolina Playmakers carried "The Matchmaker" on a two-state tour following the Chapel Hill run of the Wilder farce-comedy. "Doctor Faustus" was presented in the outdoor Forest Theatre in the Spring.

Three bills of one-acts, written, directed, and staged by students, and a studio production round out the program of dramatic activities for the Playmakers, along with the program of the experimental drama group, The Student Theatre Workshop.

WUNC RADIO

WUNC Radio, the Voice of the University, returned to the air in December as one of the most powerful non-commercial, educational stations in the South.

Previously the FM station had operated at 15,500 watts and had covered an area within 35 miles of Chapel Hill. During the fall semester, the station's antenna and transmitter were moved to Terrell's Mountain in Chatham County, facilitating reception of the station up to 100 miles from Chapel Hill.

In its ninth year of service to the people of the community and the state, the station was manned by a staff of 60 Carolina students, and was managed by Reno Bailey. In the 1961-62 season, as in years past, WUNC continued to strive for unequalled excellence in programming and production.

The WUNC transmitter was further utilized by the North Carolina Memorial Hospital, which broadcast medical lectures, conferences and demonstrations to hospital personnel in a score of North Carolina cities.

In addition to the expanded public coverage, the station initiated a "carrier current" system, whereby students in dormitories on the campus could receive WUNC programming on their standard AM radios.

COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE

Creating a greater awareness within the Student Body of the purposes and activities of Student Government is the main function of the Communications Committee. To implement this purpose a vigorous program was proposed this year which included activating dorm and fraternity newspapers to use as a source of student communication, publishing a Student Government handbook, maintaining displays in the library, and direct communication with students through dorm and fraternity meetings.

State publicity for student Government was undertaken by cooperation with the UNC News Bureau, the Alumni News, and by contacting newspapers throughout the state.

The University Debate Team enjoyed an active year, debating the merits of the resolution that labor organizations should be under the jurisdiction of antitrust legislation.

The team attended tournaments at Wake Forest, University of South Carolina, Duke, New York University, University of Maryland, and others. In addition, public debates with other colleges were held on campus, and the team participated in a series of debates on controversial issues telecast by WUNC-TV. Veteran members of the team were initiated into Delta Sigma Rho, a national forensic society, at a banquet in the spring.

U.N.C. BANDS

The Marching Tarheels are recognized as one of the South's outstanding show bands and feature special musical arrangements at all of Carolina's football games.

Under the direction of Herbert W. Fred, the band program also includes the Concert Band and the Symphonic Wind Ensemble which have achieved recognition for their fine performances. Pep Bands perform at pep meetings and rallies.

The talents and efforts of the Club are combined to present, to the people of North Carolina and along the entire eastern seaboard, a blend of the best loved works of music, ranging from religious to traditional school songs.

This, the only touring choral group on campus, each year conducts a Fall and Spring tour. The highlights of this year's tour include return performances at the Pentagon and the Church of the Pilgrims, both in Washington, D. C., and an appearance at the Azalea Festival in Wilmington, N. C. Aside from major tours and its campus appearances, the Club performs for various civic, religious, and educational groups in central North Carolina.

U.N.C. MEN'S GLEE CLUB

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student Government has been in existence at Carolina for many years; yet never has S.G. played a more vital role in our university life than this year. Activities began as the president of the S.G. interviewed interested students for positions on nearly 20 executive committees. This year's applications created a new high in the number of interviews and a new degree of student participation in S.G.

The Committee on Student Affairs has been particularly active through its encouragement for passage of the bond issue. Study rooms, lighting, and general campus improvements have been areas of concern of the Campus Affairs Board during this year. Reaching into the realm of international affairs, the International Student Board has worked to promote a general international awareness on campus and also has tried to establish new foreign student exchange programs.

Not only has the executive branch of S.G. been very busy, but also have the legislative and judicial branches of S.G. been very active. The Student Legislature, among its many responsibilities, was solely responsible for appropriating a S.G. budget of nearly $150,000. This branch of S.G. has proven to be a very good training ground for future leadership. Likewise, the judicial branch of S.G. has proven very important through the leadership of the Attorney General's Staff and the Men's and Women's Councils.

The Student Legislature is the supreme legislative body of the Student Government, and as such, has responsibility for almost every area of student life outside the classroom.

The legislature appropriates over one hundred fifty thousand dollars in student fees to various campus organizations each year, supervises scores of campus activities, approves all appointments of the president of the student body, makes all laws necessary and proper to promote the general welfare of the student body, and considers resolutions on issues of concern to the student community.

The legislature is composed of fifty students elected from thirteen campus districts. The Vice-President of the Student Body presides over the legislature as Speaker. All other officers and committee chairmen are elected by the legislators. The Student Legislature meets weekly on Thursday night in the Phi halls in New East.

MEN'S COUNCIL

Due to legislation passed last year and by the vote of a campus-wide referendum, the membership of the Men's Council increased from 11 to 16 members, and the Council began to try cases involving violations of both the Campus and Honor Codes. As a result of the Council's closer contact with faculty and students, the Honor System gained respect.

Through the use of a movie made by the students, the presentation of our Honor System made a lasting impression on the freshman class; and by the follow-up work of each member of the Council in his dorm or fraternity house, the Honor System became a part of the student's personality.

Once again it was proven that student's discipline is best handled by the students themselves.

GEORGE CAMPBELL

WOMEN'S COUNCIL

The Women's Council is that body having original jurisdiction in all cases involving violations of the Honor Code and Campus Code. Breach of social rules and appeals from Honor Council are considered violations of the Campus Code.

The Women's Council, composed of eleven women students elected bi-annually from geographically-apportioned districts according to the location of their living residences, determines the innocence or guilt of the accused and decides the corresponding sentence if the defendant is found guilty. Members of the Attorney's General's Staff handle all investigations and presentations of cases.

The Honor System of the University of North Carolina is the axle in the wheel of the Carolina Way of Life. It carries out the fundamental principle of democracy and belief in the individual and his sense of responsibility. It is a united affirmation of a living principle: a declaration of the faith placed in every individual to judgment and discretion in all actions. There can be no compromise of honorable conduct.

MEN'S INTER-DORMITORY COUNCIL

Composed of representatives from each of the twenty men's dormitories at UNC, the Inter-Dormitory Council functions as the governing body for the men's dorms. It takes upon itself the duties of planning programs for the enrichment of dorm life and of representing to the campus the interests of the dorm residents.

This year, under the leadership of Jim Gaulden, the I.D.C. has proved itself by providing a generally expanded social program for dorm residents and by bolstering its disciplinary system into a more effective operation.

The I.D.C., composed of six members and the chairman, is elected from the I.D.C. members. It acts as the judiciary body of the disciplinary system by handling all infractions of rules.

I.D.C. COURT. Howard Holsenbeck, Bruce Welch, Chairman; Rex Savery, Blair Drumm, Clerk; Tom Walker, Ralph Mosley.

WOMEN'S RESIDENCE COUNCIL

Women's Residence Council is the body of Student Government which formulates all the rules for the women which pertain to their social standards and welfare. In addition to this legislative function, the Council serves as a link between the women students and the Administration by working closely with the Dean of Women and her staff. Consequently, the women students at Carolina are assured of contact with the Administration by virtue of the representation they have on Residence Council. Moreover, the Council ideally tries to instill in the women students an appreciation for the assistance rendered them by the dormitory administration and the University administration.

The Council is charged with such duties as granting late permissions, discussing problems which arise in the residences, and co-ordinating dormitory and sorority life within the framework of University regulations. The Council is composed of a chairman, which is elected in the spring campus elections, the dormitory presidents, one junior elected as a representative-at-large from each women's dormitory, sorority house managers, the House Council co-ordinator from Women's Council, and an ex-officio member from the office of the Dean of Women.

PAM PARKER
Chairman

First row: "G." Holler, Faye Crow, Pam Parker, Lila Smith, Betty Letta. Second row: Martha Wolfe, Jane Merritt, Neal Hollingsworth, Diane Blanton, Marcia McFarland, Anne Lobdell, Frances Hyatt.

CAROLINA WOMEN'S COUNCIL

The Carolina Women's Council was organized in response to the need for cooperation and coordination in and among women's dormitories. The Council works in many areas of campus life, including academic, political, social, and athletic activities. Members of the Council include the Social Chairman and the Activities Chairman from each dormitory: Mrs. William B. Aycock, advisor; and Miss Anne Barber, ex-officio member from the Dean of Women's office.

Some of the activities sponsored by the Carolina Women's Council are a Guide Service for visitors to the campus; an annual Leadership Training Program; an award and reception for the Outstanding Senior Dormitory Woman; the Carolina Belles, official hostesses to athletic events; Homecoming activities, dances and participation in the Beat Duke Parade; and a scholarship cup awarded to the dormitory with the highest scholastic average.

The Carolina Women's Council strives to promote a greater unity in dormitory life and to increase participation by dormitory women in campus activities. This year the Council has worked closely with Men's Interdormitory Council, Women's Athletic Association, Stray Greeks, Student Athletic Council, and Women's Residence Council, in order to meet this goal!

CAM TABER
Chairman

THE CAROLINA SYMPOSIUM

The Carolina Symposium is a concerted effort of the University of North Carolina and the entire educational community of Chapel Hill to bring to the campus outstanding speakers in various fields. This, a series of inter-related discussions, lectures, and seminars, is designed to capture the attention and thought of the community. April 1 through April 5 was the date of the twelfth bi-annual Symposium, entitled TODAY'S REVOLUTIONS. Included among many outstanding participants were Dr. Crane Brinton, author and historian of Harvard University, and Senator Gale W. McGee, of Wyoming. The program is financed almost entirely from the contributions of the student body.

UNIVERSITY PARTY

Fall elections-keep University Party busy.

The purpose of the University Party is to encourage and promote better student government through policies and platforms which reflect the opinions of students representing all parts of the campus. Its aim is to nominate and support the best qualified students for the services of student government and to promote them within student government policies.

The Party holds a nominating convention prior to each election, in addition to several meetings throughout the year to discuss Party policy. The University Party offers membership to any interested student on campus, and now has around 900 members. The administration is done by a chairman and an executive committee. Emphasis this year was on broadening membership, and reviving campus-wide social life.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. First row: Tony Harrington, Gayle Ragland, Inman Allen.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S STAFF

The Attorney General's Staff is charged with the responsibility of investigating all alleged violations of the Honor Code and the Campus Code and presenting these cases to the appropriate judicial committee, Women's Council or Men's Council.

This year's staff, headed by Allen Cronenberg, and assistants Fred Dashiell, Dan Robbins, George Rosental, and Mike Sprinkle, made many changes in organization and procedures in an attempt to increase efficiency and effectiveness in an effort to strengthen the Honor System.

COMMITTEE ON STATE AFFAIRS

The Committee on State Affairs attempts to inform students of the scope and nature of their state university in light of changing conditions and policies. The Committee also strives to educate the people of North Carolina about the needs of the University.

Much of this year's work involves promotion of the bond issue which would provide U.N.C. with much-needed improvements and facilities, including a new undergraduate library-student center.

Seated: Jim Clotfelter,
Tom White, Joe Routh,
Vernon Parker.

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

The Committee on Academic Affairs deals with student participation in academic policy-making and any problem within this area which the Committee feels should be investigated, basing its action on the concept that the student voice is indispensable in a vigorous academic community.

Activities for 1961-62 include a study of the Faculty-Advisor system, continuation of the course survey program, and an effort toward establishing an extension of the University abroad.

First row: Karen Nelson, Bill Whichard, Martha Doughton. Second row: Ben Lenhardt, Garland McAdoo, Buzzy Stubbs, John Morris, Harold Bender.

The Honor System Commission consists of approximately twenty students who are appointed by the S.G. President and approved by the Student Legislature.

Its purpose is to study the honor system, make recommendations, and present the Honor System to new Carolina students and high school students throughout the state. This year the Commission had as its main objective a better understanding of the Honor System by each UNC student.

HONOR SYSTEM COMMISSION

CONSOLIDATED UNIVERSITY STUDENT COUNCIL

The Consolidated University Council is composed of student leaders from each of the three branches of the Greater University, these branches being the University of North Carolina, North Carolina State College, and the Woman's College. This year the Executive Offices of President and Secretary were filled by Bill Shipp and Jey Deifell of U.N.C.

The Council acts as a liaison group discussing mutual problems and projects. The main project of the year was the establishment of a banner to rotate annually to the winner of the Carolina-State football game. The banner contains the seals of the three branches, and will be displayed on the campus of the winning team through the year. Other projects designed to better relationships between U.N.C., State, and Woman's College on the cultural, social, and academic level were also undertaken. One of these projects was a Consolidated University Day held at all three schools.

NATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The University of North Carolina was instrumental in the founding of the United States National Student Association over fourteen years ago and has since played an active and vital role. The Association is a confederation of over four hundred American colleges and universities represented through their democratically elected student governments.

First row: Jerry Ellis, Clare Stoddard, Bill Straughn, Marte Kornegay. Second row: Bill Holbs, Robert Veatch, Harry DeLung, Larry Phelps, Bill Bowerman, Ford Rowan, Charles Heatherly.

The Carolina Forum since 1935 has brought to the campus speakers of national and international interest. Since the Forum's purpose is to keep the students of the University in first-hand touch with the events of the day, world personalities intimately involved with these events have been and are being invited to present their views to the campus.

CAROLINA FORUM

The Campus Affairs Board seeks to uncover various problem areas in student life. The Board analyzes the problem and either attempts to achieve the solution itself or refers the finding to the proper persons with recommended remedial action through the co-ordinated efforts of Student Government. Specific areas of interest this year have been evening study rooms, cut policy, and cafeteria pay and conditions.

CAMPUS AFFAIRS BOARD

Seated: Penny Jackson, Nancy Wilson, Tony Harrington, Chairman; Dedee Zanetti, Louise Hall. Standing: Sara Jo Allen, Mary Allford, Malcolm Kilpatrick, Martha Kemp, Lynda Richert, Bob Clawson, Harrison Merrill.

ELECTIONS BOARD

The Elections Board conducts the Fall and Spring general campus elections, any necessary referendums, and reapportions the legislative districts each year.

This year special attention was given to thoroughly revising the General Election Law, to improve the efficiency of the election procedures, and insure against infractions.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES FUND STAFF

The Student Activities Fund Office audits books for fraternities, sororities, campus organizations, and others. This office has approximately seventy accounts. It works closely with Audit Board and the treasurer of each organization in keeping a record of accounts and counter-signing all checks.

Miss Ethel Hogan, Mrs. Carole Hentz,
Mrs. Frances Sparrow.

The Budget Committee examines the anticipated expenditures of various campus organizations and formulates a complete Student Government budget which is presented to the Student Legislature for final approval. The Student Government budget for the fiscal year 1960-61 was $147,000.00.

BUDGET COMMITTEE

Pete Thompson, Robert Burgess, John C. Frye, C. Scott Trull, Judy Clark, Arthur J. Merrill, Darst Murphy, Scott Summers, Clyde Benton, Wayne Foushee.

The primary function of the Audit Board is to supervise the Student Activities Fund Office. The group also serves as a financial control and in an advisory role to Student Government. Five students and two faculty advisors constitute the membership of the Board.

AUDIT BOARD

UNIVERSITY ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE

The University Entertainment Committee was established in the spring semester of 1961 because there seemed to be a definite lack of high quality entertainment available to the student body.

The committee's first concert was held in Memorial Hall on Friday, October 6, 1961. The Four Aces, Richardi, the great illusionist, and Alan Black, a noted harmonica virtuoso, were featured in two performances.

UNC AMATEUR RADIO CLUB

The Amateur Radio Club of the University of North Carolina is an organization sponsored by the Student Legislature and is a service organization to the entire campus.

The present club began about four years ago but the club actually dates back to 1919 when amateur radio was still in the experimental stages. The main purpose of the club is to handle messages for students and members of the faculty. This service is always available and is free of charge. The club is also a valuable assets to the entire campus as a means of emergency communication if the need arises.

The club consists of approximately 30 members and anyone who is interested in amateur radio is invited to join. The club also conducts classes in Morse Code and radio theory so that others might pass the required F.C.C. exams and join the wonderful ranks of amateur radio operator.

Sitting: Alexander B. Galvin, Nields De Vere, Mike Howard, Standing: Marvin Mason, Jackie Bernell, Ralph L. Hardison, Michael P. Walker, Frank E. Farrow.

The Campus Orientation Committee, with Al Pollard as Chairman, planned and supervised the activities of all new students during the first session of summer school and during orientation in September of 1961. The Chairman, the Women's Coordinator, and a committee of twenty-five students met in March, April, and May to map out the schedules to be followed by the 275 student orientation counselors in presenting the new student with the Carolina Way of Life. Sara Jo Allen, Women's Coordinator; Fred Anderson, Foreign Student Coordinator; Richard Barton, Graduate Coordinator; and Elizabeth Reed, Secretary; led the activities of the committee.

Orientation Activities included meetings with Chancellor Aycock, members of the administration, student government officials, and outstanding members of the faculty. Honor System lectures, registration, physicals, tests, and an overall introduction to the institutions and traditions of the University were also on the orientation agenda. Following the 5-day orientation period, there was an extensive evaluation by a faculty and student committee.

ORIENTATION COMMITTEE

And over there, we have . . .

First row: Karen Nelson, Martha Kemp, Jane Tarlton, Sara Jo Allen, Judy Clark, Judy Chostner, Mary Alys Heim, Elizabeth Reed, Anne Sweeney.
Second row: Rowena McClinton, Walker Stevens, Jr., Fred Lavery, Jr., Larry McDevitt, Bob Madry, John Frye, Al Pollard, Wade Hargrove, Dick Strickland, Fred Anderson, Richard Barton.

The A.F.R.O.T.C. enables the cadet to prepare for the role of a responsible citizen, a well-trained Air Force officer, and possibly a pilot. The training here consists of intensive classroom and laboratory work. Principles of effective leadership and the importance of military discipline are stressed.

During their junior and senior years, the cadets are offered an advanced A.F.R.O.T.C. program. It calls for four extra hours of classroom work and two extra hours of drill each week. Upon the completion of the academic requirement for a bachelor's degree plus four years of A.F.R.O.T.C. training, each cadet is commissioned and assigned to active duty.

ANGEL FLIGHT

The Angel Flight is the auxiliary to and is sponsored by the Arnold Air Society. The purposes of the flight are to strengthen and promote interest in the Air Force, to gain information concerning the military services, and to aid the progress of the Arnold Air Society and the cadet corps.

Most of the activities of Angel Flight are carried on at the local level. The sponsors aid cadets in planning and preparing for social events, such as the Military Ball, parties, coffee hours and picnics. They also accompany the cadets on trips such as Arnold Air Society area meetings and drill team competitions. On the National level, the sixty-two flights within the United States hold an annual National Conclave in conjunction with all Arnold Air Societies. Delegates gather at the national headquarters to share ideas and discuss important issues of the National Angel Flight Organization.

The Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps at the University is one of 52 such units established at some of America's finest colleges and universities. Through its program students work toward commissions as officers in either the Line or Staff of the Navy and the Marine Corps. N.R.O.T.C. midshipmen pursue a wide variety of academic majors and take eight semesters of Naval Science courses in addition to their regular schedule.

Several activities are presented with the unit, including the unit newspaper, The Carolina Cutter, the Rifle Team, and intramural teams. The Drill Team and Drum and Bagle

FEATURES

YACKETY YACK BEAUTY CONTEST

From the black of restless night a smile is born on nervous lips —
A trumpet wails flame notes through piano laughter —
A face is named — and briefly, as the autumnal leaf, makes a fleeting stand
And silently returns to the swirl of peau de soie, candle lace, and anticipating, red-painted mouths.
Time walks by on spike-heeled shoes —
Down the rows of seated numbers — over the long board bridge
That leads to nowhere, everywhere, and back —
Past the other versions of the self —
Past the smiling, slender, gold-edged reflections . . .
And so they settle to the mass, and lose themselves in Fears of loss and joys of gain —
And the piano laughs in their ears and hearts . . .

The Queen of the 1962 Yackety Yack is a lovely southern belle from New Orleans, Louisiana. Mary Ann, sponsored by the Sigma Nu fraternity, is a senior majoring in studio art and is planning to go into fashion advertising after graduation. A member of Chi Omega sorority and Miss Chapel Hill of 1961, she spends much time working on Y.W.C.A. projects and on the student government scrapbook. Her favorite pastimes are horseback riding and waterskiing.

MARY ANN HENDERSON

GAYLE RAGLAND

Alpha Delta Pi receives the credit for sponsoring blond Gayle Ragland, whose major is medical technology. Gayle, a sophomore from Jacksonville, Florida, was on the Freshman Cabinet last year and is now secretary of the University Party. She likes swimming, bridge, and horseback riding for recreation.

BECKY HARTMAN

Becky is a charming sophomore nurse sponsored by her sorority, Delta Delta Delta. Her campus interests this year are Y.W.C.A. and S.N.A., while her outside interests include water-skiing, dancing, and reading. Becky is from Raleigh.

JEANNIE KLEITMAN

A junior physical education major from Levittown, New York, sultry Jeannie was sponsored by Tau Epsilon Phi fraternity. She transferred from Woman's College this year and is especially interested in modern dance.

DOLLY ISOM

Statuesque Dolly, who is enrolled in the School of Nursing, was sponsored by the Nurses' Dorm. Besides serving as Social Chairman for the Freshman Class, Dolly, whose hometown is Raleigh, is a member of Angel Flight and S.N.A. She spends much of her spare time singing, dancing, and reading.

JUDY ALLEN

Sponsored by Pi Kappa Alpha, vivacious Judy Allen is a freshman physical therapy major from Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. She is a freshman cheerleader and a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. Her main interest off campus lies in sports. Besides being featured in the Year Beauty Section, she was also a member of the Homecoming Court.

LYNN THOMPSON

This fun-loving Chi Omega was sponsored by Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. She hails from Atlanta, Georgia, and before entering Carolina attended Pine Manor Junior College. An education major, Lynn's primary outside interest is ballet.

LYNDA COLVARD

Attractive Lynda Colvard, from Starkeville, Mississippi, was sponsored by her sorority, Kappa Delta. A sophomore nursing student, Lynda is interested in swimming, art, dancing, and reading.

CAROLYN MITCHELL

Lovely Carolyn is another winner sponsored by the Nurses' Dorm. She is a junior in nursing, a Carolina major-ette, and a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority. Carolyn, whose home is Chapel Hill, likes piano and waterskiing.

BILLIE GANDY

This stately beauty, sponsored by Whitehead Dormitory, calls Concord, North Carolina, her home. She is a senior majoring in math education and is interested in reading and knitting.

DEAL MacARTHUR

A junior transfer from Agnes Scott College, Deal was sponsored by her sorority, Kappa Kappa Gamma. Her hometown is Vidalia, Georgia. On campus, Deal, an English major, serves as an alternate to the Carolina Sweethearts; off campus, she enjoys reading, swimming, and skiing.

LYNN BOYETTE

Phi Gamma Delta fraternity-sponsored pretty Lynn Boyette, a recent transfer from Salem College. A major in elementary education from Kenly, Lynn is a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority. Among her outside interests are dancing, tennis, and travel.

LIN SITTON

Lin Sitton, sponsored by the Nurses' Dorm, is a sophomore nurse from Hendersonville. Active in extra-curriculars, she is secretary of the sophomore class, a member of the Angel Flight, and was an orientation counselor. She likes waterskiing and dancing.

UNIVERSITY DAY

The legend goes that in the 1730's, William Davie sat under the "Davie Poplar" and decided that Chapel Hill, situated in the beautiful hilly region of the piedmont section, should be the site of a proposed state university. He had the job of finding a suitable location for a state supported school and decided that Chapel Hill was the best site. His judgment resulted in the founding of the University of North Carolina in 1793.

"What this country needs are those who look, as the motto of your State says, at things as they are and not as they seem to be."

On October 12, each year, the University celebrates its humble beginning with a commemorative ceremony. The day is devoted to reaffirming the University's purpose, to honoring the University's faculty, and to celebrating the date of the University's founding.

This year, 163 years later, the ceremony deviated from the traditional re-enactment of laying the cornerstone, in that the program centered around our nation's President, John Fitzgerald Kennedy, as the guest speaker.

President Kennedy arrived a few minutes before the ceremony was scheduled to begin. Under a boiling hot sun, the crowd of 32,000, made up of University students, school children, and interested spectators, gathered in Kenan Stadium. The people were anxious to hear the first speech to be given by the President south of the Mason-Dixon line since his inauguration in January, 1961.

Many politically interested spectators had gathered in the hope of hearing the President comment on current events or foreign policy, but they were not disappointed by his speech which centered appropriately on university education.

Kennedy's beginning reference to Harvard as a "small land grant school" was received humorously, but as his speech became more serious everyone listened in quiet attention. He challenged university students to use their "intellectual energy in the service of their country and in recognizing contributions educated men and women can make in the field of intellectual and political leadership." His speech ended with the pledge "We shall be neither Red nor dead, but alive and free."

The President of the United States has come and gone, and seldom has the University been host to so distinguished a guest.

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY
President
of the United States

"We move for the first time in our history through an age in which two opposing powers have the capacity to destroy each other and while we do not intend to see the free world give up, we shall make every effort to prevent the world from being blown up."

"The American eagle in our official seal emphasizes both peace and freedom and . . . we in this country give equal attention to its claws which in its left claw holds the arrow and in its right the olive branch."

"If we can be purposeful, if we can face up to our risks and live up to our word, if we can do our duty undeterred by fanatics of frenzy at home or abroad, then surely peace and freedom can prevail. We shall be neither Red nor dead, but alive and free!"

Chancellor Aycock reads the citation awarding President Kennedy the honorary LL.D. degree.

President Kennedy and Governor Sanford lead the faculty procession.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming 1961 featured the Brothers Four and the nationally ranked Louisiana State football team. As it turned out, the Brothers Four could have been put to better use in the Carolina backfield than in Memorial Hall.

Friday night, an enthusiastic audience greeted the spoofing and singing quartet. The Joe Bushkin Trio, led by its remarkable drummer, Joe Jones, backed up the well-received concert.

The Homecoming displays as usual were bright and imaginative. Alpha Tau Omega, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Spencer Dorm were deserving winners in their respective divisions.

Saturday afternoon was a different story. The weather was cool and crisp. So were Paul Dietzel's Bayou Bengals as they methodically crushed a good Carolina football aggregation, 30-0.

JANN GANNAWAY
Homecoming Queen

The only consolation, and almost worth the defeat, was the Homecoming Queen, who was presented at half-time. Beautiful, auburn-haired Jann Gannaway, a senior Chi Omega from Charlotte, reigned over a lovely court of charming co-eds.

Yet in the face of defeat, the bawdy revellers and inebriates were not to be denied. Lively combos blasted on into the night. And if the Tar Heel footballers were shut out, the same could hardly be said for the ABC store.

PERSONALITIES

e. e. cummings, one of America's most popular and controversial poets, appeared on campus in November, sponsored by the English Club. Among his better known works are included luni, depicting his trip through Russia, the enormous room, about his imprisonment, and "buffalo hill's defunct." Photographs of this gentleman are scarce — we understand he's camera shy.

Ferrante and Teicher hit the Carolina campus, setting fire to an ordinarily "I'm too cool to smile" audience. The students packed Memorial Hall via the windows, as well as the doors, leaving not even standing room only. Included in their piano selections were "Exodus" and "Theme from the Apartment," both million dollar sellers. Also during the program the students heard this two-some's own arrangements of pop classics and show tunes, and a special number on their custom made "Baby Grands."

During the Carolina Symposium, James J. Kilpatrick, associate editor of the Richmond newspaper, The News Leader, served on a panel concerned with problems of racial conflicts. He is considered a strong segregationist, his views having been reflected in two recent books, The Sovereign States and The Lasting South, both published in 1957. Mr. Kilpatrick is a past recipient of the Sigma Delta Chi honorary journalism award for distinguished editorial writing, and has served as chairman of the National Conference of Editorial Writers.

Gina Bachauer, Greek pianist, gave a concert here in December, displaying a spark of vitality and sheer verve that is peculiarly her own. Miss Bachauer "played with great brilliance, thundering tone, and a masterly command of the Brahms style."

Appearing at Carolina during the Fall Germans weekend, The Brothers Four, a popular singing group, captured the attention of the audience. These Four began their careers in San Francisco in October 1958 and have played for many college audiences throughout the country. To date, their most popular recordings have been "Greenfields" and "The Green Leaves of Summer."

Dr. Crane Brinton, renowned Harvard historian, opened the 1962 Carolina Symposium with an interesting and learned synopsis of world political revolutions. As well as being an excellent teacher, Dr. Brinton's accomplishments and honor range from special work with the Office of Strategic Services to membership in the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

A North Carolina representative participating in this year's Symposium was John McNeill Smith, chairman of the North Carolina Civil Rights Commission. Mr. Smith graduated from the University of North Carolina in 1934 where he earned a Phi Beta Kappa key, served as editor of the Daily Tar Heel, and was tapped as a member of the Golden Fleece. Besides heading the state Civil Rights Commission, Mr. Smith has an outstanding law practice in Greensboro. He served as defense counsel on the famous Scales Case dealing with communism.

Senator Gale McGee of Wyoming spoke the second night of the Carolina Symposium on political revolutions of the contemporary world. After a distinguished career as an educator and lecturer, Senator McGee made his first venture into politics when he was elected to the United States Senate in 1958. For his concern and knowledge in foreign and domestic affairs, and for his vigorous attempts to put his ideas into legislation, McGee was chosen as one of his party's two most outstanding young senators.

Odetta, singing a group of folk songs while accompanying herself on the guitar, caused the audience to take notice of an exceptionally beautiful voice and a haunting style. Odetta's career, covering little more than six years, has won her great stature with her unique style.

Appearing at the Fall Germans Concert with the Brothers Four, Joe Bushkin and his Trio transformed Memorial Hall into a Newport Festival. This nationally renowned pianist and composer, has appeared with the Benny Goodman, Tommy Dorsey, and Bunny Berigan bands and composed the backgrounds and appeared in the Edmond O'Brien TV series "Johnny Midnight."

Dr. A. J. Ayer, Grate Professor of Philosophy of Mind and Logic at the University of London, visited the Carolina campus for the Philosophy Department Symposium. He is the leading exponent of logical positivism in Great Britain and his Language, Truth and Logic (1936) is regarded as a kind of textbook of this school. Few philosophical works of any age have been more widely discussed.

Dr. Claude Faucheux, assistant director of the Social Psychology Laboratory at the University of Paris (Sorbonne), spoke to all interested persons of the University on "Group Creativity." This outstanding social psychologist has written a great number of research articles and monographs. He finances his wing of the lab by money earned through consulting the French Government and private industries in Europe concerning consumer and marketing research.

The campus resounded with the music of the National Symphony Orchestra, which was founded in 1931, and has, under the leadership of Music Director, Howard Mitchell, taken its proud place among a handful of really great symphonic ensembles in the world. Since he was appointed conductor of the National Symphony in 1949, Mr. Mitchell has achieved the highest artistic and technical excellence for the Orchestra, and he won recognition and acclaim from critics and the public alike.

One of the events of Consolidated University Day in September was the unveiling of a portrait of O. Max Gardner, presented by his widow and painted by New York artist, Albert Murray. Mr. Gardner, a past Governor of North Carolina and Ambassador to the Court of St. James, was a foremost figure in the consolidation of the three institutions into a combined University of North Carolina. Speakers on this occasion included Dr. Frank P. Graham, Governor Terry Sanford, and Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges. Dr. Graham (to the right) is a member of the Atomic Energy Commission, a consultant for the U.N., and a past president of the University of North Carolina.

A rock and roll spectacular was presented for Winter Germans. One of the featured groups was the colorful Isley Brothers (pictured at the right) famous for their record, "Shout." Appearing on the same program were Ernie K-Doe, Lee Dorsey, and the Five Royales.

The venerable New England poet, Robert Frost, has been an annual visitor to the campus for many years. Memorial Hall has always been thronged with students during his poetry readings, and small seminars enjoyed his leadership in stimulating discussions.

The tribute to the Woman's College's poet-professor Randall Jarrell, the 1961 winner of the National Book award for Poetry, was the first such recognition given by the Consolidated University as a whole. The main address, "Poetry and Our Moment," was delivered by Robert Penn Warren, Pulitzer Prize winning novelist and poet. Although not pictured, President Friday spoke for the C.U. and Paul Green, author of "The Lost Colony," spoke for the North Carolina Writers.

Carlos Montoya, one of the world's greatest flamenco guitarists and the first to experiment with concert solos, demonstrated his talent to the UNC students in October. At the time, he was on a North American tour before returning to Europe and his native Spain.

Josh White, acclaimed by many as one of the world's greatest folk singers of this generation, appeared December 2 with his son in Memorial Hall. Josh White is known throughout the western world as a perceptive artist and a versatile craftsman who can "electrify a sophisticated audience while retaining the power and simplicity of traditional singing."

Nell Rankin, a veteran of the art and considered by most critics as the foremost mezzo-soprano before the public today, performed in Memorial Hall as a G.M. production. Miss Rankin has appeared at the Metropolitan Opera, La Scala, Milan, Vienna State Opera, and the Opera International, Mexico City, to mention only a few, and her recordings are available through RCA Victor, Capital, and London.

Billy Graham, well-known evangelist, addressed the student body here in March. Mr. Graham, a resident of North Carolina, was sponsored by the Religious Emphasis Committee of the Y.M.C.A. Last year Mr. Graham's activities included a speaking tour in England and an appearance at the North Carolina Council of Churches.

The Four Aces, famous for their "Love Is A Many Splendored Thing," appeared here on their Southern Tour. Included on the program were Ricardi, an illusionist who has performed throughout Europe, and Man Black, an outstanding and entertaining harmonica player.

CAMPUS CHEST CARNIVAL

In March 1961, the YMCA Campus Chest Carnival had its beginning. The purpose of this big afternoon of festive activities is to raise money for worthy "Y" sponsored charities and offer the campus a fun-filled day. This is planned as a yearly project to be held sometime in the spring.

The scene.

That old carnival spirit.

Sure beats walking!

No place on this car for my "Bell Tower sticker!"

"You never can tell with these Carolina Co-eds."

This makes you feel like a kid . . . !

Touche'

"Step right up folks and see the bearded Carolina Co-ed!"

"Hey, Mom, look at me!"

F U N

The Rabbit Habit.

Padbling makes such a difference these days.

Glasses make the man, and the man makes whatever he can.

Splat!

Limbo! That's what they call it.

Sorry ... parking in the Bell Tower lot only.

Booze, weeds, and now where's my date?

"Lucky" would be a better word!

An award-winning display.

Gosh, I haven't got the slightest idea what I'm going to do now . . .

But baby, you know what I like!

You're never too young to like goats.

Chomp . . .

Give 'em hell, Heels!

Hey, mom! Here I am!

A day at the golf course.

Give me an "F"!

"To thee we sing our praises."

Clown!

Honor Council is watching you.

See, I told you, you were in here, B.A.S. . . .

Graham crackers!

Carolina student makes choice from datable campus stock.

In Philadelphia almost everybody reads the Inquirer.

"But, officer, we were only having a little fun and besides, everybody violates those ridiculous drinking laws!"

Bang!

Oh, it's brew, brew, brew . . .

Keep still, boys; there's plenty for everybody.

"But I wasn't on that bus!"

Still life.

What's my line?

Spencet's best girls.

"I'll take some braised sinews and arteries."

Must have been something they ate!

It looked like a plea for food when the eggs and vegetables came flying.

Just a little lower!

Just another flash in the pan!

Alpha Gam's tribute to the Confederacy.

"One mint julep and a vestal virgin."

Fort Lauderdale! Yea, Yea!!

I'm building a castle . . .

Carolina local talent.

Ban takes the worry out of being close.

This dorm room is just infested with little crawling things.

In spirits after the game.

Whatever happened to Minsky's ...?

Yell a little harder and your tonsils will fall out.

Lay me down . . . Roll me over.

Sorry. Basketweaving 32 is closed.

Whoever did this display forgot what Santa Claus looks like.

Hope she doesn't draw the shade before the performance is over.

Who says it's what's up front that counts?

Get that left out feeling?

I'm just wild about Harry's!

"Breck for Beautiful Hair"

A little pepper makes all the difference!

Why yes, I'd love to!

WHO ME?

LAURA LANG CARSON
A.P.O. Sweetheart

Alpha Phi Omega, the only national service fraternity, was founded at Lafayette College, Easton, Pennsylvania in 1925. Rho Chapter was established in 1930. The Torch and Trefoil is the official magazine, and the colors are blue and gold.

ΑΦΩ

The purpose of Alpha Phi Omega is to assemble college men in the fellowship of the Scout Oath and Law, to develop leadership, and to promote service to humanity. This purpose is carried out through service projects and various social events including Parent's Day, a non-profit Book, and an Ugliest Man on Campus Contest for charity, banquets and parties.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The Panhellenic Council is composed of the Panhellenic Advisor, Miss Nancy Adams, sorority presidents, rush chairman, one representative-at-large from each sorority, and two representatives from the Stray Greek organization.

Panhellenic is the governing body of the sororities. One of the chief purposes of this organization is to establish understanding, cooperation, and friendship among the sororities. The council must maintain close cooperation with the college administration in an effort to establish high standards that are mutual for all groups. Panhellenic also makes the rushing rules and tries all cases of infractions of rules.

During the year, Panhellenic participates in various service projects both in the town of Chapel Hill and on the UNC campus.

The Stray Greek Organization which was founded in 1944, is composed of sorority women whose chapter is not represented on this campus. Its aims are to preserve the bonds of unity and sisterhood in sorority life, to serve its members as a service and social organization, and to stimulate co-operation between sorority and dormitory women.

Each year the Stray Greeks take over the responsibility of the Panhellenic Post Office during sorority rush and its members serve as advisors in the dormitories. Following rush, the Stray Greeks hold the Stray Greek-Panhellenic Pledge Picnic to honor the new pledge classes and an Officers Tea for the sorority officers.

The Stray Greeks also participate in service projects, social events, various campus activities, and Women's Athletic Association.

What, me worry?

It could have been worse.

Summer ended all too soon for many, especially the workmen at the Tri Delta house — but despite no floors and half painted walls, the sisters came back ready for rush — all wondered if we would have even a house to rush in but all was finished and the new pledge class came in ready to take over their new home and we all love them, don't we Lover?

It was a good year for all, wedding bells rang for Rooney, Sharon, Linda, and Sharon and others just had fun moving from one party to the other under Lang's organization — and then there was the UP Congressman Frazier. While Dale cheered the House on to victory, Mac taught Alfred how to Fly. By the way, Hannah, how far is it to New York . . . did everyone get their invitation, Lester?

All in all it was a good year — what with Johnsy and Judy on freshman cheerleading and Becky and Judy (again) in Yack Court; a new house (kinda), a new house mother and tremendous pledges.

 As twenty-seven pledges will attest.

 Elections, faculty tea, eternal "to-do."
 The candlelight ceremony working overtime.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

Bill Sullivan
President

The Interfraternity Council of the University of North Carolina serves as the unifying and governing body of Carolina's twenty-four Greek letter societies. Its membership consists of the president and an elected representative from each Carolina chapter. The I.F.C.'s goal is to promote the lofty ideals of the fraternity system in general. There are various committees which work to attain these goals. Among them are the following: Rush, Greek Week, Scholarship, Rules, Special Projects, Publicity, and Handbook. These committees, as is the whole I.F.C., are guided by the Executive Committee which consists of the major officers.

Discipline among Carolina's fraternities is largely self-imposed and is supervised by the I.F.C. Court. This body consists of seven men — the President, Vice-President, and five other members elected by the I.F.C. The by-laws give this judicial arm almost unlimited power in its effort to maintain high standards of conduct among the fraternities.

This year, under the leadership of President Bill Sullivan, the I.F.C. has become what its members have been striving for over the years — a powerful representative voice for the fraternities. The I.F.C. year started with the Midpines Faculty — Fraternity Conference at Southern Pines at which the faculty and fraternities exchanged valuable ideas and opinions. This conference was the seed for several new I.F.C. policies which include a new scholarship rule and a program of deferred rush.

In addition, the I.F.C. gave, as it has since 1943, an Andrew Bershak Scholarship to an outstanding and needy North Carolina graduate. The scholarship is worth $2,000.

Lastly, in its efforts to promote interest and enthusiasm in I.F.C. as well as scholarship and other worthwhile activities, the I.F.C. annually awards several trophies. These include the R. B. House Trophy for the best fraternity, the Scholarship Trophy for most improved scholarship, the Phi Delt Trophy for highest overall scholarship, and the Strum Trophy to the year's best pledge class.

Sigma opens '61 year on solid ground behind Peter A., "Leatherneck." "The Trailer Man." and "Scrooge" . . . 36 Actives return . . . Rush a great success; "Brains" and "Brawn" guide new charges . . . Year looks potent under the G. P.'s blessing.

"Stud" and "Aaron" polish "Smarts Keys" while Brothers sweat grades . . . "The Fox" leads social to banner year . . . Blue Hushpuppy Team defeated by E. C. . . . The "Three L's" lead Tar Heel cheers.

"Maid" and "The Chum" lead Lodge fire drills under Chief Nick's capable direction . . . "Lav" loses hadge, kitchen suffers from Unicorn attack . . . Chi Psi's drag "Torch of Education" seventeen miles -- in vain.

Andy throws "banana ball" for Heel diamond squad . . . "Lip" bounces back with Navel orange, needle, and "Nectar" . . .

Another great Pledge Week-end . . . Beer Ball and Frishbee become rage . . . leaves turn green, George demands more green . . . Seniors sweat . . . A great year for all . . . Compliments of Sigma.

Beta's 111th year got under way even faster than usual . . . rush began and ended almost before we knew it, leaving 21 slightly confused but happy pledges to be broken in . . . and then the inevitable road trips . . . "Prince La La" decides to go McCoy one better and fertilizes Hollins with his personality . . . "Bird" becomes a full-time star for the Blue Team, pulling unbelievable catches out of nowhere . . . Susan refuses to be shot down by a wild boar and becomes a redhead in revenge . . . Pope supervises as two would-be artists tackle the new driveway with soap and water . . . Winter arrives, and with it Campbell's annual search for true love . . . "Kool Aid" narrowly avoids a head-on collision while combing his hair in a rear view mirror . . . Then spring at last . . . Zander returns from his six month vacation at the beach . . . the "Green Traf Monster" emerges from his winter hibernation — much to the horror of women and small children . . . Little things, to be sure, but for 16 graduating seniors, they helped to make up a year that will be remembered always.

With both the R. B. House and Sturm trophies decorating the trophy case, the Carolina DU's kicked off another successful year. But everybody liked Goombah's spaghetti with meatballs. "Dub" sold out the house with extensive (and expensive) fixtures. "Those brothers with names A through M can walk on floor from 7:15 to 9:30 P. M." Cabin parties were further and further away from Chapel Hill — "Johnny, honey, are you sure this is the road to the party?"

Stack added forty sharp pledges. "Hey, someone better warn those pledges about that PJ."

"Casey" christens Gil and Goldie . . . Townsend goes skiing . . . "Chevy Chase Sam" commutes from Dook . . . Avant dates a gumball titty . . . Harkness machine politics . . . Harper has dull time at U.S.C. as Jenkins hides his pin . . . Dillard has words with pledges . . . "Little" Herman Pracke goes out for soccer anyway . . . Fluet discovers that there's an "r" in "car" . . . Jay-Bird wills his trophies to Mac . . . and Delta Upsilon ends another wonderful year.

Dilly "if you don't like it, pack your bags" has a hard job, Gib is now asking for a raise. The "Whip" got caught. "Space" graduated. Rush was fun. Reed has to spend all his time training all of our pledges. Charlie and Bubba are engaged and can't wait to get married. Franchot. "Spider." J. C. Hammer. and Hunter are Continentals now. Hunter returned to school married. Quiet enough to study with Ron gone, but it looks like Pickett is going to take his place. Fitzgerald looks toward Raleigh. McLamb gets to play. Homesley studies for a change. Bows has a "fat-attack." Hipps, a fatter one. Coffee "runs through the gears." Howell doesn't fight any more. Kepner plays soccer. Barrett is glad he transferred. Another O.T.L. statement by Stonestreet. Sloc speaks nothing but refined English all year. The grin on "Ivy's" face grows wider as G. C. commencement approaches. Hynes finally decided to quit playing the role and now admits he is in love.

We all trickled back to "the Hill" ready to open another season at Alpha Mu. Rush came bringing one of the best pledge classes yet. The year went something like this —

"Froggy" and "Ru-Ru-Ru-Ruffin" float in on a dex cloud . . . "Rico" surprised to find that Greensboro honey smokes . . . Liquid diet for "Johnnie Walker," no solids except ice cubes . . . "P-P" tonks with Tank . . . "Scalding Wheelbarrow" replaces TV Guide . . . Hurd plans arson at Central Records . . . Fowler gets three hour leave from Jackie to come to the house . . . Scott adds more notches to his pencil as the q. p.'s roll in . . . V. A. and Ficklen fight as "Fuzzy" trumps and travels . . . "Praise God" takes to strong drink while con-man Allen says he's got a new proposition for us . . . "Me" can't believe they'd do that to him and Duff . . . "Squatty" runs interference for Benton through a heavy line of living room couches . . . McCabe got fished in for $8.00 night at Watts.

Then there were the football week-ends, Germans, the pledge dance, beach week-end, and another year ends too soon.

Old Lambdas return to set good examples for all the new pledges. Bartholomew becomes our mascot. Good parties out at The Barn. Two Drinks replaced by Half Drink. First string flick team practices overtime to make championship team.

Sandy entertains sorority neighbors with late visits. Inverted bathtub gets plenty of use, but not bathing. Charley finally takes that crucial step. What happened to Bill T., Frank, and Dick S.? Will Al ever learn to keep up with his glasses? "Where's my Tommy?" says our favorite K.D. The "Blue Dart" struggles on, but will it make it?

Joe brings fiddle for midnight serenades. John K. and Dick O. join Lightning Bolts. John T. still has problems. Faris gets snowed twice a week. Will Dick S. ever make up his mind? Ben's folly is covered up. Charley finally sticks with French. Bill M. becomes a red-headed Romeo. Fred saves energy for second semester.

The Phis roll on with "Wolf" leading the pack and tight-fisted Malzone collecting the jack. Murals are tough behind Gallopin' Ghost, but McSwain loves peddlin' clothes the most. Restrictive clause endangers "Dumbo" and "Toad" as Riley hits the Asheboro Road. The gridders are led by "Bahy Ray," the same guy who led Mr. J.F.K. Briggs and Bilbro captain fish while Irvine works on Gopher dish. Burrough's eggs produce no chick, but "C. C.'s" parties are pretty slick. The Christmas Party makes quite a show despite the loss of the great C. O. While Jesse Joe bags through noise from afar. Young Cox is sporting a German-made car . . . and Willie-bone hurries home.

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

The University of North Carolina was host to the fifth Academic Year Institute sponsored by the National Science Foundation. Teachers from several states are spending a year together reviewing basic principles and concepts, becoming acquainted with new developments in science and mathematics, and acquiring new methods and goals. Through lectures and discussions, the group has ample opportunity to explore common problems and to exchange ideas in their fields of interest.

Phi Delta Chi is a professional pharmaceutical fraternity, founded to advance the science of pharmacy and its allied interests, and to foster and promote a fraternal spirit among its members. Phi Delta Chi was founded at the University of Michigan in 1883, and established locally May 30, 1923. The Fraternity flower is the red carnation, and the colors are old gold and dregs of wine.

Another year, another lab, and a face-lifting at 206 Fetzner Lane. Johnson and Hayes move to the country, and Hayes turns lover. Wedding bells ring for Doe and Moser . . . Long lingers as Cameron and Stokes pilot a Cadillac and a "Red Rabbit." Dad Farrior rejoins the troops . . . Beaver complains while Joe smiles and McAllister curses . . . What's that Jake? you're a fourth year sophomore? Big Dick activates as Deaton and Cekada commute. Bender fines, as Smith and Harwood sit quietly through the storm . . . Chamblee and Cullertson make Dean's List? Watson and Sime make merry, while Collette labors at Ohio's. "Say, Hartis, did Maggie say we could have a meeting?" Pledges loaf while brothers paint. "Let's Twist"

Alpha Kappa Psi is the oldest and largest professional business fraternity in the world. Alpha Tau Chapter, first installed at UNC in 1925, has many professional programs and services available not only to its members, but to all students at the University.

The 1961-1962 year began with the meetings of the great minds in Grady's room. After the first party weekend, a fund was started for a larger couch for our president. A trend toward "minds?" of the other world was begun. Walk softly, pledge, and don't wake the termites. This year marked the beginning of Daddy Rabbit's escort service, Homecoming Weekend that never ended . . . Spook is prejudiced against Chem classes, Oates now believes his batman. What's on the late show? Get that beer can off the table! Hey, Jack, what's for lunch? Brown's third year in Birdwatchers Anonymous. Anyone for bridge?

A LAST WORD

If you have read this book from cover to cover, we feel you could not have missed sharing the feeling we have that the NEW 1962 Yack is purposefully different. We should like at this time to point out some of what we call "changes for the best."

The book is conveniently arranged as a quick reference and as an interesting piece of reading material. Yes, we did say reading, if you can spare that much time, for much effort was put forth to make the story of the academic year something more than just a pictorial representation of Carolina.

The Year in Retrospect is a newly developed idea which aims to recall every phase of the school year. The three seasons are presented through thoughtfully composed copy and excellent pictures.

We hope the faculty section will receive more attention this year than in the past. Along with the Administration, a cross section of outstanding U.N.C. faculty members is presented. This is a small attempt to recognize some of the remarkable men who have contributed to the University of North Carolina being a truly great institute of higher learning.

The new Features division is the one we have gotten the most enthusiastic about. The coverage given to some of the outstanding personalities which are brought to Carolina annually was greatly needed, as was the coverage of a few of the more important events, such as University Day and Homecoming. A color picture of the Yack queen, and an interesting new idea for a divider added freshness to the section. The twelve pages of Fun is an attempt to pull together that portion of our lives at Carolina which will probably be remembered the longest, and cherished the most.

The revised layouts on all of the fraternal groups make for a more interesting presentation; and for the sake of convenience, a detailed table of contents, a student index, and an organizations index have been included. Generally speaking, there should be something in the book that will appeal to everyone, at least we hope so.

A special note of thanks goes to the following contributors of the 1962 Yackety Yack:

Mr. Price Coursey — representative from the Charlotte Engraving Company, who was our teacher and helper.

Linda Logsdon — without a doubt, the most valuable person on the staff. Linda's devoted hard work and interest in the book were indispensable and encouraging. She not only typed the entire index by herself, but also aided on almost every other section in the book.

Julie Latané — a manager in the true sense, who provided a larger staff of workers than any other previous Yack had ever had, and was amazingly adept at keeping them happy and productive.

Chips Weaver, Warren Sams, Frank Crowell, and Richard Zalk — Chips for his pictures of never ceasing excellent quality; Warren for his fine photographs, especially the tremendous color pictures; Richard and Frank for their faithful availability for assignments, anywhere at anytime.

The enthusiastic staff in general, and specifically: Dave Coffman — for his fine editing of the fraternity section, and for his assistance with much of the picture captioning; Ellen Solomon — who willingly helped with the completion of many sections in any way she could; Ann Daniels and Ginny Timmons — who were responsible for the entire Faculty section, including the tedious task of selecting the individuals to be pictured and the preparation of copy; Jane Paden — who added a beautifully creative touch to the introductory section, the four undergraduate classes, and the beauty section with her extraordinarily fine free verse; Faye Webster, Jay Dinsmore, Sybil Penninger, Bev Desmond, Ann Davison, Charles Chinnis, John Howe, Mary Alford, Joy Carr, Marte Kornegay, Henry Chason, Malcolm Kilpatrick, David Cheek, Jack Jones, Frances Jess, David Buxton, Bill Ezzell, Bolling Puller, Jay Bailey, and Al Roseman — who competently turned out their sections with little trouble.

This book was created for the Students of the University of North Carolina. It took many hours of hard work by a large number of people. We, the Editors, sincerely hope that the student body enjoys and approves the 1962 Yackety Yack.
